SLAYERS OF STAFF CHIEF SENTENCED

Two Irishmen Who Assassinated Sir Henry Wilson Condemned to Die; Jury Out Only Seven Minutes

2000 Irregular Prisoners Have Been Captured by the Free State Troops; Sligo Is Clear of Rebels

By International News Service

LONDON, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—Two Irishmen, today were convicted of the murder of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, former chief of the British Imperial general staff. The jury was out only seven minutes. The men were arraigned in Old Bailey court and the trial was conducted with the greatest possible speed. Both men were calm when the verdict was returned. Both Dunn and Sullivan were sentenced to death.

LONDON, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—Two thousand irregular prisoners have been captured up to date by Irish Free State troops, according to a Central News despatch from Dublin this afternoon. Sligo and Thurles have been cleared of rebels. Fighting continues in the region of Limerick. The city is isolated.

FREE STATE CHIEFS HIDE PLANS.

DUBLIN, July 18 (By the Associated Press).—Talk in Dublin today continued to center around approaching operations on a big scale against the republican irregulars, but the Free State commanders so far have successfully hidden their plans.

Meanwhile the national army troops continue to reap scattered successes. Including the prisoners captured by Free State troops during the recent fighting in Dublin, the nationals now hold approximately 2000 prisoners.

An unusual order issued by one of the leaders of the irregulars, it was reported today from Kilkenny was found in the possession of a prisoner when he was captured by Free State forces. The document, it was said, instructed the recipient to "commandeer labor, work day and night and make all roads impassable. The man who disobeys must receive the extreme penalty. You are at liberty to inflict the same on anybody who disobeys your orders."

IRREGULAR FORCES FIRE BARRACKS.

LONDON, July 18.—The most outstanding success of the Irish national army forces in their drive, south and west is reported from Clonmel, where the irregulars set the barracks on fire and retreated hastily without awaiting the arrival of the regular troops, says a Central News despatch from Dublin today. The town was the principal stronghold of the irregulars in the South and their field general headquarters.

U. S. Awards Roads $6,054,189 in Claims

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(United Press.)—Six railroads today were awarded a total of $6,054,189 by the Interstate Commerce Commission in payment of claims arising out of losses sustained during the first six months following federal control. The largest amount, $5,385,449, was awarded to the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad. Other repayments authorized were:

St. Louis, San Francisco and Texas railroad, $314,967; Port Worth and Rio Grande $251,885; Quannah, Acme and Pacific, of Texas, $72,226; Paris and Great Northern of Texas, $23,111, and the Brownwood, North and South of Texas, $6551.

20 on Excursion Boat Saved at Sea

LONG BEACH, July 18.—Twenty men and women, passengers aboard the Tourist, an excursion boat which was disabled ten miles off Newport on the Orange county coast south of here, were rescued by the fishing smack Muelo and brought to Long Beach. When the Muelo sighted the Tourist the latter was wallowing in the trough of the sea with engine disabled and a sail set to keep her head in the wind. The Muelo circled the Tourist three times before she was able to get a line aboard. Then she towed the Tourist here.

$350,000,000 Sought For Crowns of Czars

LONDON, July 18.—(United Press.)—The Soviet government is offering the former imperial crowns of the Romanoffs, valued at $350,000,000, according to a report from Warsaw.

Co-ed Adopts 'Senior Plug' Hat And Knickers for Campus Wear

Here is the latest "correct attire" for campus wear as sponsored and worn to classes by Miss Anita Nieto, senior student at the state university. The sombrero shown in the picture in Miss Nieto's hands has heretofore been held sacred to men students, but has now been adopted by the young woman for her very own style of headgear.

WOMAN LASHED WITH HORSEWHIP

Arbuckle Case Witness Attacked by Disappointed Heir to Estate.

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, charged with perjury in San Francisco because of the testimony she gave there in the trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle for manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rapp, film actress, yesterday was horsewhipped in her home here by Mrs. Emily Croll, according to what the police said Mrs. Croll told them.

The trouble grew out of testimony given by Mrs. Neighbors at a contest here last year of the will of Mrs. Croll's mother, Mrs. Minnie Unger, who devised the greater part of her estate to other children. Neighbors of Mrs. Neighbors stopped the alleged horsewhipping and called the police. Mrs. Croll was treated for hysteria at the receiving hospital, but was not arrested. The police advised Mrs. Neighbors she could swear to a complaint against Mrs. Croll if she wished. She did not indicate what action she would take.

The San Francisco perjury charge against Mrs. Neighbors was dismissed last January.

Kentuckian Fasts 64 Days; Near Death

STANTON, Ky., July 18.—William Rice of Nada today was speechless and in a very weakened condition on the sixty-fourth day of his voluntary fast. Physicians who have examined Rice do not expect him to live much longer if he continues to refuse sustenance. Rice said he intended to fast only forty days, "to purify his body as Christ did," but when the forty days was up he still continued the vigil, saying if he ate he would go to hell and asserting that he was living on spiritual food. Until a few days ago Rice was able to talk, but now his speech has left him. By his bedside are a Bible, a cross, a fan, a trumpet and a likeness of Christ. Rice has a wife and two daughters, both of the latter being married, who are at his bedside.

No Reason Why Men Should Rule.

Now comes pretty 20-year-old Anita Nieto, daughter of Rabbi Jacob Nieto of San Francisco and University of California student, to tell the world a few things in the far-flung discussion hovering about the bobbed-haired, short-skirted and scantily clad modern girl commonly called "the flapper."

Miss Nieto thinks the world is a cruel place for women in general and college girls in particular. Women, she says, are surrounded by a barbed-wire fence of "can't's" and "don't's" which make them slaves to manners and customs of a modern age.

And to show that, for one, she can snap her dainty fingers at traditions and a convention she is starting college circles with a new form of attire which she classified as "absolutely perfect" for campus wear.

Here is what Miss Nieto's attire consists of:

One pair of gray tweed "knickers" worn with long-knitted hose and low-heeled oxfords.

One man's soft shirt turned down at the collar and ornamented with a man's black and regulation scarf pin.

One tweed box coat to match the "knickers."

And, lastly, one man's regulation "senior plug," heretofore only worn by the important male personages of the graduating class on the campus.

"A 'senior plug,' in the form of a stiff-brimmed hat of 'cowboy' style and ornamented with a leather band bearing the name of the state university, has been adopted as Miss Nieto's own."

"WHY NOT WOMEN, TOO?" SHE ASKS.

"Men have distinguished hats, belts and other insignia to denote their campus affiliations," says Miss Nieto. "Why should women lag behind because tradition says she must be a shy, modest, little violet, yet afraid to face the face of the statement that 'It's never been done before, you know.'"

"I'm for equal independence for man and woman. If men wear 'senior plugs,' why can't women? That's why I'm wearing mine, and I expect other equally fearless young women to do likewise when college opens this fall."

"Knickers? They're the most comfortable things I ever wore. All this talk about skirts being a certain length and a certain fullness is tommyrot. Skirts of any kind are a bother. Knickers are not only attractive but they are the most sensible things there are. Why bother with a lot of frills when there are so many more worthwhile things to do in life?"

To add to her attractive appearance Miss Nieto has had her curly black hair conveniently bobbed to fit into her "model" makeup for a college maid.

2 ASSASSINS OF RATHENAU SLAY SELVES

German Man Hunters, About to Capture Fugitives in Political Crime, Balked of Prey by Double Suicide

Fischer and Ken, Surrounded in Castle Call Defiance Before Fatal Shots; Score of Suspects Held by Police

By International News Service

BERLIN, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—The actual assassins of Dr. Walter Rathenau, late German foreign secretary, committed suicide just as they were about to be captured, according to information given out by the police today. More than a score of persons have been arrested charged with complicity in the plot.

The assassins were known as Fischer and Ken. They shot themselves to death when brought to bay and surrounded at Castle Saeck, near Koesen, in Middle Greh. The self-inflicted death of the two assassins brings to an end the most dramatic man-hunt in German history.

News of the double suicide was received here just as the Reichstag was to pass upon the defense of the republic bill, which was a direct result of the late foreign secretary's assassination. Before committing suicide, the assassins stepped to a window in a tower, shouting:

"Hurrah for Erhardt!" Colonel Erhardt was commander of the troops that took over Berlin during the Kapp uprising in March, 1920.

Lumber Profiteers Face Federal Charge

WASHINGTON, July 18.—An indictment against ten persons charged conspiracy to defraud the United States out of more than $1,000,000 in connection with the disposition of government lumber following the war was returned today by the special federal grand jury which has been in session since June 1, investigating the transactions.

Those named in the indictment are: John L. Phillips, Republican state committeeman for Georgia; John Stephens, partner of Phillips; Ernest C. Morse; Charles H. Shotwell; George M. Chambers; Frank T. Sullivan; Roland Perry; Charles Phillips Jr.; Gus Elten.

The indictment was the first to be reported by the grand jury empaneled to investigate war frauds, for which inquiry congress appropriated $500,000 for use by Attorney-General Daugherty and a special corps of assistants.

Denver Slayer Is Declared Sane

DENVER, July 18.—Orville J. Turley, confessed slayer of Mrs. Emma G. Wise, whose mutilated body was found in the furnace pipe of a North Denver vacant house June 17, was declared sane by a jury in the Denver county court today.

Turley previously had been declared insane by three boards of alienists who had examined him, but the jury followed the testimony of laymen who expressed the belief on the witness stand that Turley was sane.

Turley now must face trial on a charge of first degree murder in the district court.

Veteran Editor of N. Y. Times Passes

NEW YORK, July 18.—Charles R. Miller, for forty years editor of the New York Times, died here today after an illness of several months. He was 73 years old.

Miller's entire newspaper career was with the Times except for three years spent on the staff of the Springfield Republican, after his graduation from Dartmouth in 1872. He was recognized as one of the ablest editorial writers of the country. He received honorary degrees from Dartmouth and Columbia and decorations from the French and Belgian governments. He was a member of the Century, Metropolitan and Piping Rock clubs in New York.

Porto Rican Court Sustains Governor

SAN JUAN, P. R., July 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The supreme court of Porto Rico, by a vote of 4 out of 5, has sustained Governor E. Montt Rios in his controversy with the Unionist attorney general in the various courts of the island.

President Harding Will Ask Governors to Act on Rail Strike Before U.S. Moves; State Troops Ordered For Coal Mines

NATION WILL REVIVE COAL RATION PLAN

War-time Fuel Control to Be Restored as a Result of the Mine Strike; Government Acts to Force Production

Situation Regarded as More Serious Than Since Walk-out; Harding to Sacrifice Claims for Public Rights

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—Coal rationing this winter, similar to that existing during the war period, already is virtually assured, according to opinions expressed today in government circles. Even should coal mining be resumed at once, a high official of the administration asserted, priority orders will have to be established in order to protect the Northwest and possibly New England states.

By JAMES T. KOLBERT, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—President Harding and his cabinet met today as a "council of war," determined to force the production of coal in the face of the strike of 500,000 miners and the refusal of their leaders and operator chieftains to submit to arbitration. Harding "invited" the bituminous operators late yesterday to reopen their mines when the owners accepted in part his arbitration proposal and offered to put their mines and services at the President's disposal.

Keeping in mind the massacre of mine guards and non-union miners at Herrin, Ill., and the fatal battle between deputies and mine strikers in West Virginia, yesterday, the President and his cabinet discussed the advisability of placing federal troops on guard at all mines accepting the invitation to reopen.

MOST SERIOUS CRISIS SINCE STRIKE BEGAN

The situation is now regarded more serious than at any time since the coal strike began, April 1. The fear is openly expressed here that the nation faces one of the greatest battles in its history.

The President is planning on co-operation between the states and federal military forces to bring about coal production. Count and state authorities will be asked to give adequate protection to mines that reopen.

Harding takes the view that the overshadowing need of the country now is the production of coal and that it must be brought about regardless of how it will affect either the operators or striking miners.

The President is determined that the Herrin and West Virginia episodes shall not be repeated.

STRIKERS WON'T GO BACK, LEWIS STATES.

In an emphatic manner, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, asserted that virtually none of the army of striking miners will return to work until their demands are met.

It is probable that the first attempts to operate the mines with strikebreakers will be made in the western Pennsylvania bituminous fields.

Governor Spruell of Pennsylvania is ready to call out the Pennsylvania state troops and take any other action necessary to protect mining in this region and the President's plan for forced coal production will be tested out in this state.

Labor leaders privately expressed the opinion that the President's plan is certain to bring on strife in the coal centers.

"Nothing that could have been done would have made coal production more difficult or law and order more difficult to maintain," said one labor leader.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—While coal operators were scattering to their districts today to reopen their idle mines under a mandate from the Federal government, with the assurance of protection that such a mandate implied, President Harding went into session with his cabinet without a complete program of government procedure. That the long discussed crisis actually is at hand no one in Washington is denying.

U. S. Troops Will Intervene If State Authorities Fail

By THOMAS L. STOKES, United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Because, for the present, President Harding desires that efforts to terminate the shopmen's walkout should be carried on by railroad labor board, it is probable that the peace plan of the executive and his cabinet will be sent to the Chicago agency.

The White House announced the president would issue a message to the governors before night. Back of this appeal for prompt action by the governors will be a warning that if the states cannot cope with the critical situation the federal government, in the public interest, will be forced to intervene and use the United States army.

This course of action was decided upon by the president and his cabinet at their meeting today.

The White House indicated that the administration will throw federal troops into the strike reluctantly, and it was denied that the use of marines on trains had been decided upon.

No reports of further disorders at Denison, Texas, were received at the war department early today, and it appeared probable that there would not be an immediate dispatch of troops.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Harding late today will send simultaneously telegrams directing the operators of all bituminous mines shut down because of strike conditions to resume operation at once and requesting the governors of the states in which the mines operate to furnish such military protection as may be needed. If state troops find it impossible to cope with the situation, federal troops, it was understood, may eventually be employed.

FLAMES DESTROY TWO DIE, 30 HURT RICHMOND MAIL IN N. Y. BLAZE

Ten Parcel Post Pouches Are Completely Burned; Origin of Fire Undetermined.

RICHMOND, July 18.—Ten pouches of parcel post mail were destroyed and four pouches of first-class mail partially burned in a fire of undetermined origin which broke out in the baggage room of the Southern Pacific station here early today.

It is the belief of the authorities that the fire was caused by the explosion of a bottle of liquid in one of the parcel post pouches. All of the pouches postmarked today that the postoffice authorities were able to deliver the first-class mail.

The mail consignment came in shortly after midnight last night and was loaded on two trucks and moved to the baggage room. The moving was supervised by Night Ticket Clerk T. J. Differding, who discovered the fire six hours later when he opened the baggage room door.

Differding succeeded in extinguishing the flames on the blazing truck and confining the fire to that conveyance with emergency apparatus at the station. He notified Postmaster J. N. Long and an investigation followed.

The investigation is being conducted by Postoffice Inspector J. H. McHenry of Oakland, who said today that he is as yet unable to determine the extent of the damage and has not solved the mystery surrounding the blaze.

Harvest Fields Will Seek Many Rail Strikers

HELENA, Mont., July 17.—To ascertain if railroad shopmen and coal miners now on strike will work in Montana harvest fields this summer, a questionnaire has been sent to officers of local unions of both crafts by C. D. Greenfield, Jr., chief of the division of labor of the State department of agriculture. Additional labor approximating 3500 men will be needed to help harvest the estimated crop of five million bushels of winter wheat and thirty-five million bushels of spring wheat.

Responses from striking railroad shopmen's union already received indicate that a large proportion of their number will be willing to go into the harvest fields. A letter received by Greenfield from the head of the miners' union in the state declared that many of the miners have left Montana or found other employment.

MOB FLOGS SHOPMEN AT FORT WORTH

While Renewed Efforts Are Made to End Rail Strike, Violence Occurs in Texas; Georgia Troops Ready

New Undercurrent of Peace Reported as New Parleys Planned by Labor Board and Maintenance Leaders

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 18.—Fort Worth's first strike disorders broke out early today when four young non-union shopmen were dragged from a dance hall and flogged. After the beating they were left on the roadside, six miles south of Fort Worth, and reached home by foot about 2:50 a. m. The four men have been working in the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad shops and had gone to the dance hall, which is near the railroad shops.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., July 18 (By International News Service.)—Three companies of Georgia state troops departed today from Mt. Simon's Island, off this port, for Waycross, Ga., where railway strike disorders occurred late yesterday. No new troubles were reported today and it was said that action was taken to prevent any new outbreaks.

CHICAGO, July 18 (By International News Service.)—The 202d artillery anti-aircraft regiment of the Illinois National Guard was ordered mobilized today. Orders for the mobilization, it was said, came direct from Governor Len Small, through the office of the adjutant-general. No announcement as to the purpose of the mobilization was made, but it was understood that the railroad strike situation at Bloomington was responsible.

THREE BIG SYSTEMS HOLD UP SETTLEMENT.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—Three big eastern railroads—the New York Central, Pennsylvania and Erie—are the only railroads now holding up settlement of the shopmen's strike, according to semi-official word from Chicago which reached Washington this morning, just as the cabinet assembled at the White House for a momentous session.

The northwestern, southwestern and southern railroads have agreed to accept labor demands, according to messages received, and "pressure" is being brought to bear on the eastern railroads to fall in line.

By CHARLES R. LYNCH, United Press Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, July 18.—A new undercurrent of peace set in toward settlement of the rail strike today.

The late peace move was cloaked in secrecy. Sponsored by members of the railway labor board, it was understood the new proposal was offered by shop craft leaders. The plan is based on the immediate return of strikers to work and the reopening of the wage scale agreement before the labor board.

Previous peace moves were blocked by the refusal of the shopmen to return to work pending negotiations.

The new plan also embodies restoration of seniority rights, elimination of contract work by the roads and creation of adjustment boards.

BOARD MEMBERS MEET UNION LEADERS.

Labor board members had declared they planned no further peace move. A few hours later they were again in conference with union leaders and rail executives. Great significance was attached to the reopening of negotiations.

Maintenance of way men of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad presented to the labor board a petition for rehearing of rules and wage agreement.

This step is in line with the agreement whereby Grable held up the maintenance strike. Board negotiations.

Rail Divorce Urged By Senator Capper

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(United Press.)—Strict enforcement of the supreme court's decree ordering dissolution of the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific railroads was urged today in a petition presented to the Senate by Senator Capper, Kansas.

members declared that the petition would be given immediate attention.

The railroads have agreed to waive the thirty-day notification period and the case will come before the board as soon as possible.

A decision may be handed down within thirty days, board members said.

Chairman Ben W. Hooper was in his office until an early hour this morning. He met several rail executive and union leaders.

GRABLE WILL NOT CALL STRIKE AT PRESENT.

President E. F. Grable of the maintenance men conferred with members of the board today. Grable announced, following a closely guarded session with Albert N. Jewell, president of the board.

Grable will determine the stand he will take at the meeting of general chairman at Detroit Thursday after his conference today.

shopmen, that he would not call a strike of his organization at this time.

The 202d anti-aircraft artillery was mobilized here today. They will be entrained for Bloomington, Ill., this afternoon, where they will relieve troops already on duty. The regiment is composed of approximately 600 officers and men. Mobilization orders were received early today.

A train-load of strikebreakers passing through Chicago suburbs was fired on last night by five men in an automobile. The shots went wild. The attacking party escaped.

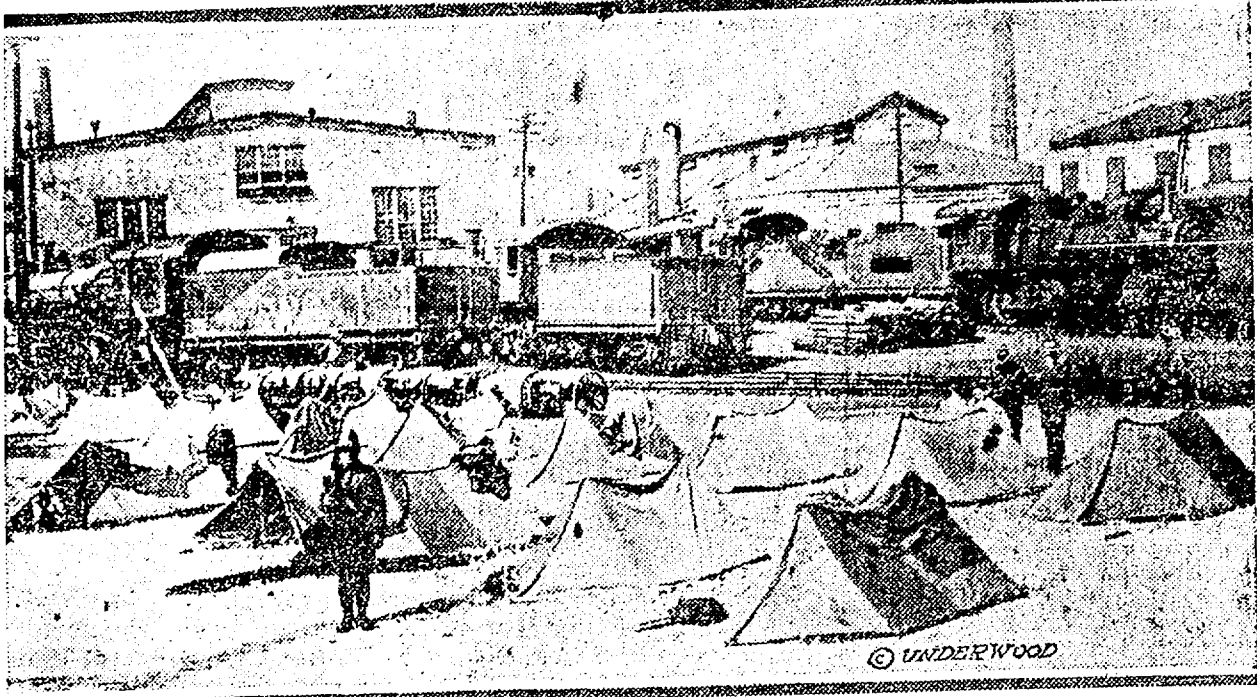

CHICAGO, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—The strike of railway shopmen was believed today to be moving swiftly toward a climax as the result of secret parleys held here during the last 24 hours. Conferences from which a plan of settlement is expected to emerge are still in progress, according to authentic reports. Officials of the United States Railway Labor Board and of the shopmen's union decline to confirm reports that a definite peace plan had been evolved. Persistent reports that a settlement appeared closer than at any time since the walkout began, however, are not denied.

SENIORITY RIGHTS INVOLVED IN PLAN.

According to these reports the plan involves an agreement by the railroads to restore seniority rights of the strikers and to abolish the practice of "farming out" shop

Gun Company Camps in Railroad Yards

Company D of the 130th Infantry, a machine gun outfit, camped in the yards of the Chicago and Alton R. R. at Bloomington, Ill., where disorders were reported. The road houses are shown in the rear and are heavily guarded. With hopes for a speedy settlement of the railroad strike fading, fresh disorders and interruptions of traffic were reported, while the government prepared to use troops if necessary to enforce non-interference with transportation of the mails. —Underwood & Underwood photo.

Seventy-five Men Imported Kept on Train

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., July 18.—Seventy-five negroes being sent by the Santa Fe railway to Needles, Calif., alighted at Seligman, near here, on receipt of word from Needles that they would not be permitted to leave the train at their intended destination. The negroes were then taken back to Winslow, Ariz., where the townspeople gathered at the station, compelled them to continue their journey eastward. At Gallup, N. M., according to word received here, the commander of the local national guard organization refused to let the negroes stop and at last accounts they were still traveling.

work to shops not owned by the railroads.

The unions, for their part, will agree to an immediate return to work with the assurance that a re-hearing on the wage scale be granted. It is understood that conferences between W. L. McMenamin, labor board member, and Bert M. Jewell, leader of the strikers, have established this tentative basis for an agreement. McMenamin and Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the board, also are understood to have held parleys with railway executives.

The opinion is prevalent that Women Enter Race For Nebraska Votes

LINCOLN, Neb., July 18.—Nebraska Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists today are nominating candidates for the United States Senate, six seats in the lower House of Congress and full state and county tickets in a statewide primary.

Only one candidate has a "chance," Mrs. Eluella Barton of Lincoln, seeking nomination for the United States Senate as a Prohibitionist, is without primary opposition. Two other women are in the race for state superintendent of schools. Another asks nomination for secretary of state as a Progressive and Mrs. Irene Buell wants to go to Congress as a Democrat from the Fourth district.

The campaign for non-remunerative, non-political jobs as regents of Nebraska university has eclipsed in interest contests for major offices. Each old party will nominate two regents on economy platforms.

FAN REPLACES FLOWERS. NEW YORK.—The old practice of carrying bouquets at society functions has been replaced by that of wielding a fan which matches the gown.

The labor board, having brought prospects of an agreement appreciably nearer by the series of conferences that have been held, soon will call a formal public hearing of the rail executives and the union chiefs at which it is hoped a final settlement will be effected.

Tear Gas Bombs May Be Weapon For U.S. Marshals

NEW YORK, July 18.—(United Press.)—Tear gas bombs will be used in case of disorders in the railroad strike in Eastern New York and New Jersey, authorities said today.

Hundreds of United States marshals are being trained in its use. The first effect of the strike was felt in New York when it was reported that egg shipments had fallen off 35,000 crates in the last two weeks.

U. C. GIRL ADOPTS SENIOR PLUG HAT

Golden Gate park traffic officer a merry chase last Sunday morning when, while on a favorite mount, she chose pedestrian paths instead of the bridge walks for her car. Booked at police station, she regarded the entire escapade as a joke and laughingly handed out a package of cigarettes to officers.

"Do I smoke? Of course I do," laughs Miss Nieto. "I always carry a package of cigarettes. They're part of the makeup of the modern girl."

Miss Nieto also has a few things to say to Miss Nancy Buckley, poetess, who along a few quips of her own this week at professors and college girls.

Miss Buckley has aroused Miss Nieto's ire by declaring that Flo Ziegfeld would have a hard time picking out real beauties for his famous choruses among Berkeley college maids.

"Miss Buckley just hasn't looked in the right places, that's all," says her attractive young challenger. "For myself, I think Flo Ziegfeld would be quite surprised, and pleased, if he paid the Berkeley campus a visit. As for professors being 'old maids,' as Miss Buckley says, well, for myself, I can't say that's true."

The biggest need on the campus today, she says, is a "Campus Club," where social life might be given every student who attends the university and where there might be dinners and dancing every night in the college year for all who desire.

Women, says Miss Nieto, are held in second place by men students on the campus.

"They are jealous of the powers of women and surround them by all kinds of traditions which say 'Thou must not' at every turn of the road," is her statement. As for the women themselves, they're fools to stand such treatment any longer. I'd like to see any committee of college women tell me that my knickers are 'indecent' and that by wearing my 'senior plug' I am violating college rules!"

Miss Nieto will begin her senior year this fall at the university and in the meantime is attending summer session. She is specializing in sociology and plans a career as a welfare worker—if matrimony doesn't intervene.

STRIKES LEGACY OF WILSON RULE, WILLIS ASSERTS

Ohio Senator Says Troubles Are Ripened, Bitter Fruit of Trucking Policies.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 18.—President Harding's present difficulties with the coal and railroad strikes are troubles "inherited" from the Wilson administration in some respects, Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, declared in an address here last night before the Hudson County Republican Club.

"Not only have the present unfortunate industrial troubles come to President Harding," said Senator Willis, "as the ripened, bitter and certain fruitage of mistaken policies in the past, but on March 4, 1921, there was handed to him the most tangled, disorganized wreck in governmental affairs that was ever presented by one administration to another."

Discussing the industrial situation, he said the President had inherited from the preceding administration the legacy of largess and recklessness which is now culminating in disturbed industrial conditions so grave as to tax the wisdom of statesmanship for their solution.

During the war, said Senator Willis, about everybody who wanted anything from the government treasury got it, and if it did not occur to them to ask for enough, suggestion of more liberal asking was in some cases sanctioned and urged by those high in authority, while, in others, threats extracted weak concessions from the government that were used as a basis for further demands.

"As a result of this trucking policy," he continued, "respect for authority was weakened and government by threat and coercion encouraged."

"The public has rights which must be considered paramount in any industrial contest. The nation is bigger and more important than any class or group in it, and, therefore, its laws must be respected."

and its authority maintained unchallenged." Senator Willis reviewed acts of the Republican administration and urged re-election of Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey.

BRITAIN URGES 82 BILLION CUT IN GERMAN DEBT

French Obligation to England in Turn Would Be Cancelled.

PARIS, July 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The reduction of the German indemnity to 50,000,000,000 gold marks from the present total of 132,000,000,000, and the cancellation of the French debt to England is the basis of a solution of the reparations question now being seriously discussed by French and British officials.

Although the scheme has not yet officially reached the reparations commission, members of the latter have discussed the details. The suggested solution has the hearty support of British officials, who have been urging its acceptance upon the French officials, it is announced.

The British decided to push the plan when it was definitely determined that the United States was not in a mood to discuss cancellation of the allied debt, it was learned today. Supporters of the scheme hope America will follow the lead after she has had the chance to observe the good which may result from even a partial wiping off of the war debts.

British officials have informed the French that their plan would bring about a radical change in the present European situation. It is thought that the mark would be stabilized, business confidence restored and Germany, with a collectible indemnity, would be bound to find means of paying.

The proposal has strong advocates in the reparations commission. It is announced in these circles yesterday.

It is expected in that quarter that it would have the unofficial support of the American government. Advocates further point out that its adoption would immediately have the effect of calling together the committee of international bankers, who would probably arrange a loan large enough to insure reparation payments for several years, under the revised figures.

The plan would call for a moratorium for the remainder of this year's cash payment, the Associated Press learned, experts taking the view that Germany would probably be able to balance her budget by January, provided she is relieved of payments until that time.

THREE-MINUTE TALES By Ed Schuster A SHIP PUTS OUT

THE fields of grain were yellow under a hot sun and heat waves danced on the horizon. A young man in overalls leaned against a fence and expressed the old rebellion of the farmer boy.

"I'm going to get outa here," he said. "What's there in it for me, 'cept work. I want to go where the wind is cool and fresh and where there isn't a cow or a chicken in sight. I'm going to sea!"

Sophie Wells was too sun-burned to turn pale and too rugged to act as do the weaker heroines in fiction.

"If you do, Roscoe," she said, "what's going to become of our plans and the house Dad has promised to build for us?"

The boy shifted from one foot to the other. This was no sudden decision; he had made up his mind and Sophie would have to understand.

"There's a lot of chance for a fellow to make good now in the merchant marine. I'll see the world and get new ideas and one of these days I'll build us a house in the city."

The Moanga sailed with "cuse oil to Australia and then to Manila for copra. She was chartered by the skipper from the Shipping Board under a 10 per cent forfeit and was on the way to make money. But the sale of the oil on a rising market was too much for the moral or business stability of the skipper, who retired to his cabin, studied his charter and agreements, and laid his plans. When the vessel touched Manila the captain disappeared, with $80,000 in his possession.

Under the forfeit system there was nothing the Shipping Board could do. It possessed the forfeit, posted in advance, and the Moanga rode easily on a quiet harbor near Manila. Without orders she could not sail, and the crew, mostly young men on their first voyage, had to wait for the unwinding of red tape to bring them relief.

EVERY climate, red sunsets, every one alike, day after day on a quiet sea and night after night under the stars. Men grew to hate each other, the food store was running low, some of them were ill, and the first mate, captain now, was supplied with native liquor.

Roscoe Dwyer leaned on the rail and watched the insects rising and falling in the air. It was a silent ship of homesick boys. From below came a song in cracked falsetto. Cummings had been acting queer. He sang eternally, "I was a prince with golden hair." A small boat pulled up alongside. Two of the boys who had been ashore for food showed a scant treasure and offered a hard vegetable, like a turnip, to Roscoe.

"We tried begging first," they said apologetically.

There was nothing to talk about. Everything seemed to have been said. Each day someone went ashore with letters of appeal. In Manila there were men who had interested themselves in the ship, who had written to Washington and who furnished supplies.

One day the skipper decided on action. "I be blamed if I let her sit here like a bloomin' lithograph," he announced unsteadily and gave orders to sail. In the morning they left the harbor and proceeded offshore, dodging islands and reefs. Discipline was gone, it was every man for himself and the captain's one concern was to keep moving. In the evenings they cast anchor and waited another sun.

ONE cannot sail away from the Philippines in a day. It is only at night that the winds are offshore and the vessel drifted with flapping sails, always in sight of land. But to be moving was enough for the homesick boys, a listless and hopeless crew. The days passed and the slow drifting became as monotonous as the harbor had been. There were three funerals, one for the lad who sang, and there were many so weak they could not climb the ladder after a plunge over the side.

Sixty days of drifting. Roscoe thought the shore line looked familiar. He motioned to one of the others.

"Go tell the skipper," Roscoe said bitterly, "we are back in Manila."

It was a final stunning blow. Not a man would work now, until relief came. Reappearance of the Moanga was timed with the effects of appeals sent by frantic parents to Washington. The plight of the vessel had become subject of newspaper argument at home and, despite the debatable question of responsibility, rescue was at hand. There was money in Manila to ship the boys back. The Moanga would have to wait.

"There is nothing in the world so good as a little car so we can run to town and see the movies," added Sophie.

Man Gets 60,000-Volt Shock; Lives

MARYSVILLE, July 18.—Lee Haggerty, a lineman for an electric company, is all right today after 60,000 volts of electricity passed through his body yesterday. Physicians said he would recover. Haggerty had been a pole to cut what he supposed was a dead wire, when he received the shock. The current entered his left hand and came out his right leg. He was thrown out from the pole and dangled head down from the safety straps which held him to the pole until fellow workmen rescued him.

CHILE AND PERU AGREE ON ISSUE

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Chilean and Peruvian delegates to the Washington conference cleared away the last of their differences of the Tacna-Arica arbitration agreement yesterday and announced plans for final adjournment of the conference late in the afternoon.

Final agreement on the remaining details followed quickly upon the visit of the two delegation chiefs, Carl Aldunate Solar of Chile and Dr. Meliton Pizarro of Peru, to Secretary of State Hughes. Exercising his friendly offices for the second time in the negotiations, the secretary suggested a wording of the troublesome non-plebiscite clause of the protocol which was found acceptable by both sides.

As framed by Hughes and accepted by the Chileans and Peruvians, the non-plebiscite clause is understood to provide that, in case no popular election is held in Tacna-Arica, the administrative organization of the province shall not be disturbed pending the direct negotiations by which final sovereignty would be determined. This provision would simply insure that Chilean administration of Tacna-Arica shall continue during the negotiations, without prejudice to the rights of either Chile or Peru as they exist in international law.

Activities of WOMEN

MISS CONSUELA OSGOOD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Osgood of this city, who has been enjoying a part of July at the southern resorts—Boye photo.

Colonial Days Recalled at St. Clements

St. Clement's church in Claremont was the scene of a wedding Saturday evening, when Miss Adeline Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Erickson of Woolsey street, became the bride of Arthur C. Walters. Seventy-five friends and relatives were guests and a reception was held later at the Erickson home on Woolsey street. Rev. F. Augustus Martyr officiated.

It was in the nature of a colonial wedding, the chapel being arranged in gladioli, hydrangeas and hollyhocks in the pink tones with the same appointments prevailing at the home where the reception was held. The bride wore a quaint bridal robe of white tulle with light bodice and beaded skirt. Gold lace trimmed the neck and sleeves. The tulle veil forming the train was bordered in tulle. Bride's roses and lilies of the valley were carried in the shower bouquet.

Miss Zelma MacDonald was maid of honor, and was gown in a rose pink tulle. The bridesmaids, the Misses Lorene Johnson and Lucile Smith, wore frocks of orchid and yellow tulle. All were made in a colonial fashion and carried old-fashioned bouquets of garden flowers. Little Audrey Peterson, daughter of the G. Petersons, was flower maiden. Her frock was of turquoise blue tulle and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Osgood of Monte Vista avenue and Miss Consuela Osgood were guests recently in the southland, at Santa Cruz and nearby resorts. Miss Osgood will later resume her study of music abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pollard of this city are receiving congratulations from a host of friends upon the arrival of a son in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard W. White of Alameda, accompanied by Miss Dorothy White and W. W. White Jr., are at home again after an outing in Mono county.

Miss Myrtle Steeper of San Francisco is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Britton Jr. are the parents of a son, born at Wakefield hospital in June. The baby will be called John Britton III.

A luncheon and matinee in honor of Miss Jane Lange of St. Louis, a cousin of Miss Charlotte and Miss Kitty Palmore of Piedmont, was given Saturday afternoon by Miss Margarette Bledsoe. Among the guests were the Misses Madge Rear, Jessie Gillies, and Charlotte and Kitty Palmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Greenwood, whose marriage was announced last week, are now traveling in the south visiting relatives in Los Angeles and Hollywood. They will return to Oakland next week and occupy an apartment in the Lake district.

Miss Gladys Cameron, a member of the younger set of this city, will accompany her mother on a trip to Cloverdale to spend several weeks. Upon returning she will again take up her social activities and in the fall will return to the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Noah Dewey of Alameda, with their sons, will go to Mr. Diablo to spend several weeks at the clubhouse.

The Wallace Alexanders will sail for Honolulu tomorrow. A beautiful assortment of patterns for making aprons and dresses.

Grenadines, 49c. White or cream grenadines in 36-in. width. A very good assortment of patterns to choose from. The yard, 40c.

VETERANS URGE HOSPITAL SURVEY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The League for the Conservation of Public Health, a California state organization, yesterday was requested by the Disabled American Veterans of the World War to make a survey of the hospital now operated by the United States Veterans' Bureau as well as those in course of construction in California.

The request came in a telegram from Raymond A. Lasance, national adjutant, Cincinnati.

The League for the Conservation of Public Health recently mobilized the physicians of the state, acting in conjunction with the California State Medical Association, in order to render more effective service to the wounded soldiers. The present survey is in the nature of a preliminary step to determine just what improvements are needed and the Disabled Veterans have requested the league to make any recommendations and findings that it believes justifiable.

The investigation will be conducted by the section on hospitals, the personnel of which is made up of Dr. W. E. Hargrave, William Ophule, John H. Graves, Percy T. Morgan and Dudley Fulton. Celestine J. Sullivan is executive secretary.

Black Bear Tears Woman's Nightie; Claws Her on Leg

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 18.—Mrs. Metta Wilson, who lives at Vancouver's edge, heard a noise on the top of the house yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. She went outside and called, "What are you looking for?"

Then a huge black bear jumped into space and knocked her down as it went. It was a large black bear and he touched the back of her neck with his nose, tore the collar off her night gown and with one paw, sunk his claws into the flesh of her leg above the knee. Then the bear disappeared into the darkness.

Mrs. Wilson's injuries are not serious.

Churches to View Wine Manufacture

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Rabbis, ministers and priests, duly appointed by the heads of the ecclesiastical jurisdictions of their churches, may supervise the manufacture and distribution of altar wines in their specified territories, under new regulations being considered by Revenue Commissioner Blair, in accordance with an opinion by Attorney-General Daugherty.

The national prohibition act, Daugherty held, indicated an intention on the part of Congress to place in the hands of the church itself a power whereby it will never be forced to use inferior products for sacramental wine, even be left without means of supplying its needs for sacramental wine.

Legion Post to Aid Crippled Children

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—Members of Victory Post, No. 54, American Legion, have decided to play "big brother" to the crippled children in the Orthopedic hospital here. It is announced by Commander Robert L. Hanley.

To do this they must get money and to get money they have decided to sponsor a Pioneer Day flag here for ten days, beginning September 25. They say they have the cooperation of many prominent men and women and plan to reproduce in their fleet many of the elements of early days in Southern California.

Teachers' Sessions Coming to Berkeley

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—The tenth annual convention of the California High School Teachers' Association is in session here, several hundred teachers from the southern part of the state being in attendance. The last session here will be tomorrow, the convention then moving to Berkeley for the benefit of the northern teachers. Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction; A. C. Olney, commissioner of secondary education, and other educators are on the programs.

MAYOR'S PLAN TO RAISE RATES ON WATER OPPOSED

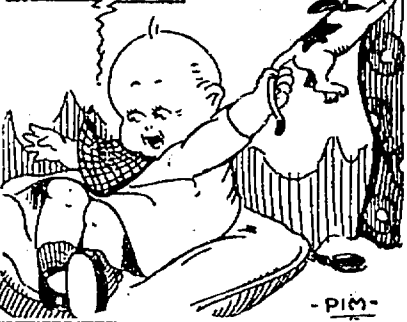

Members of Council Are in Ignorance of Scheme; Conference Called.

BERKELEY, July 1.—A plan of Mayor Louis Bartlett to petition the Railroad Commission to raise the rates of the East Bay Water Company in Berkeley in order that $400,000 might be spent for installing new mains, hydrants and other fire-fighting facilities struck a snag at this morning's meeting of the city council. That the mayor's plan as presented to the Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies for endorsement had never been laid before other members of the council and as a result that body was in ignorance of its details was the declaration of Councilmen Charles D. Heywood, George Schmidt and Carl Bartlett.

ACTION IS URGED.
The mayor, in his statement calling for action of the Council

Baby Mine

DARN IT! KITTIES PULLIN' HIS TAIL AGAIN—MAW WILL BE HERE IN A MINUTE AN' BLAME ME FOR IT I SUPPOSE.

authorizing him to appear before the Railroad Commission, declared that the increased water charges which he favored would be more than offset for taxpayers of the city by decreases in insurance rates following the furnishing of adequate fire protection.

President Roy O. Long and Secretary Charles Keeler of the Chamber of Commerce appeared before the Council with resolutions asking the Council to take the action requested by the mayor. When objections were raised by members of the Council Secretary Keeler said: "Naturally we thought that these plans had been laid before the Council. We presumed we were merely asking for action on something with which the entire body was conversant."

HEYWOOD IN DOUBT.

In leading opposition to the Mayor's plan, Councilman Heywood declared that he could not know whether or not he favored the increased rates until all of the data was before him. "Personally, I think, however, that we are going about this the wrong way," he said. "Instead of the council asking for a raise in rates for the water company, the water company should make that request to the railroad commission."

Councilman Bartlett urged that before any action be taken that conference be held with heads of the East Bay Water Company to get definite plans and promises from that corporation as to what will be done with the $400,000 asked for if a raise in rates is granted. After discussion of almost an hour a conference was called for 9 o'clock tomorrow morning between the council and water company officials.

PASS BOND ISSUE.

LAKEPORT, Cal., July 18.—By a vote of 5 to 1 Lakeport voters yesterday passed a $75,000 bond issue for building a sewer system and purchasing the town water system.

CABINET MOVES TO FORCE WORK AT COAL MINES

ington doubted today. The President has virtually ordered the coal mines of the country to reopen under a guarantee of protection by Federal troops, if necessary, to insure coal enough to keep the country from freezing next winter. Government officials admitted, however, that unless the government is successful in its efforts to settle the railroad strike, the reopening of the mines will be fruitless within a few weeks because there will be no cars to transport the coal once it is mined.

CLIFTONVILLE, W. Va., July 18 (By United Press).—Fear of "another Herrin" kept deputy sheriffs and mine guards, heavily armed, on picket duty today, following the clash yesterday in which Sheriff Duval and six bands of miners, embittered by miners were killed. The death of comrades yesterday, were reported gathering in the wooded hills around Cliftonville, preparing vengeance. Machine guns were trained on roads down which an attack might come. Meanwhile, the coroner's jury heard the facts of the slaying of Duval and the union workers. Forty-eight miners, said to have been the attacking army that converged on Cliftonville and fired mine property at which non-union men were working, were under arrest.

The room where the coroner held his inquest was surrounded by armed men grim-faced, prepared for trouble. Truckloads of police scoured the district around this little mining town. Some went to Avella, Pa., where a miner, who fled after the battle yesterday were reported to be gathering.

The first threat of renewed warfare on the part of the embattled miners came from the hills north of Cliftonville. State police swept up a slope, charged through an orchard and routed 25 men, who fled in the darkness.

Richland Coal Company property, scene of the fighting yesterday, bristled with arms today. Non-union coal diggers, against whom the miners' march yesterday was a demonstration, went to work. Heavily armed guards stood between them and the company limits. All passersby were halted and questioned. The district had the air of war.

WELLSBURG, W. Va., July 18 (By the Associated Press).—Acting on orders of Sheriff Thomas Duval of Brooks county, whose father, Sheriff H. H. Duval, was killed with three other men in a battle between authorities and a crowd of invaders at the Clifton mine of the Richland Coal Company at Cliftonville, early Monday morning, Deputy Sheriff George L. Cardwell has broken up and dispersed the tent colony of striking miners near the scene of the fight.

Forty-five men, arrested by deputies and state police, were in custody here and in Wheeling today. Three of these were in Wheeling hospitals. One of the last to be brought in was said by the officials to be the man whose shots killed the elder Duval. This prisoner's left arm was found to have been shattered by a bullet when he was captured at the Pennsylvania state line.

VALLEJO URGED TO ASSUME NAME OF MARE ISLAND

VALEJO, July 18.—Whether this city should take the name of Mare Island and be known as Mare Island City, or should give its name to the island and call that government institution Vallejo navy yard is being discussed by the residents here and may be decided by a straw vote. At the present time civic officials report that the community is divided on the subject.

BOBBED HAIR GOING; HIGH COIFFURE NEW

"I have just about decided to have my hair bobbed, Esther. What do you think about it?" do you think about it?" spanked."

"I'd like to know why. You have worn yours short for a year or so." "I know that, and I am going to let it grow. Bobbed hair is going out of date. I read a long story of it just yesterday in a New York fashion magazine."

"It must be comfortable, though, and I think I would like short hair."

"Well, the big objection to bobbed hair is that one really has to wear the same kind of clothes all the time. If one feels vampish they can't do their hair up a new way and wear clinging gowns. They must always dress like a flapper, and besides, it is the thing nowadays to wear the hair high with a big Spanish comb. And with long skirts bobbed hair looks silly."

"Maybe so. But I had a hunch that by bobbing my hair I would be a little different. I can't afford any new clothes, so I thought I would try to look up to date by having my hair cut."

"Don't do it! Get some new clothes and leave your hair alone. If you can't afford new things all at once, get them at Cherry's on credit. It really is a wonderful idea. They allow one to pay a convenient sum down and finish up on monthly payments."

Cherry's store for women is at 515 15th street; the man's store, 525 15th street.—Advertisement.

Diogenes Can Scrap Lantern; Search Ended

SAN JOSE, July 18.—Diogenes can now turn in his lantern and tub as junk. His search for an honest man is ended. That man has been found in the person of James Lethro of Decatur, Ill.

Lethro, besides being honest, is a man of quick action. His letter, which was received by Acting City Manager William Popp, is as follows and is self-explanatory: "Dear Sir: Just about four years ago I visited your Alum Rock park. I was with some of my friends and we went into the swimming pool (I being 13 years old). Another young man was with me. He was about 19 years old. We thought it smart, or at least I did, to take a towel from your place."

"I was truly converted and later sanctified in Jesus and now I am straightening up my past life as I can. This came to my mind about five minutes ago—9:35 p. m.—and I am writing you at once to send one dollar to pay for them—we took two, one apiece."

"I beg you to take this, for it is truly yours. If this is not enough, write me and I will send you more as soon as I can. I pray you will forgive me for this deed. It may not seem much to you, but it is to me. I will pray for you, for if you are a believer in Christ at all you must believe there is a hell waiting for those who are not right to meet him."

"I will pray for you and I ask that if you can pray you pray for me. If you are not the right person please give this to him."

Yours truly,
"JAMES LETHRO."

POLICE JUDGES ASK RE-ELECTION

Pledged to a continuance of their present policies, Police Judges Mortimer Smith and Edward J. Tyrrell today announced themselves candidates for re-election. The two local magistrates are making their campaign together, as there are two to be elected, and while they are known as "police judges," their classification upon the ballot will be that of "judges of the peace of the city of Oakland," a charter provision, adopted years ago, establishing them as police judges. The two receiving the highest number of votes are elected.

The following statement was issued in behalf of both candidates: "Judge Smith has for nearly a quarter of a century presided over his department, and during that time no important decision he has given has been reversed by the upper courts. He has worked hard to raise the standards of police court practice and justice, with the result that the Oakland courts are recognized throughout the state as models of their kind."

OFFER RE-ELECTED.
"He has been re-elected," time after time with little opposition, and as a result of his record the present campaign finds the two incumbents with but little opposition.

Police Judge Tyrrell, who was appointed to the office to fill the term of the then Police Judge George E. Samuels, now superior judge, is also standing for re-election. Judge Tyrrell represented this district in the California legislature and he has thus an insight into law and into the practical nature of the consequences of the proper disposition of the many

Granddaughter Of John D. Will Become Milliner

NEW YORK, July 18.—A millinery shop will be opened in Chicago next fall by Miss Muriel McCormick, daughter of Harold F. McCormick and granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller. Miss McCormick confirmed the report that she was going to enter business after being told that Chicago had heard she was going to open such an establishment there. Although heiress to two fortunes, Miss McCormick, who has been a guest of Mrs. James A. Stillman, said she was going to become a business woman because she loved style creation. She first became attracted to the art during the presentation of the French play Le Pagan in Chicago, in which she made her stage debut in the part of the boy lover.

cases that have come before him. "Judge Tyrrell is the original mover in the effort, now on the verge of success, to permit women who have made a mis-step to be sent to the State Farm at Sonoma, thus effecting their rehabilitation and restoring them to useful members of society. The jurist proposes to continue this work, fruition of which is expected within the next few months."

WORK IN HARMONY.
"Both Judge Smith and Judge Tyrrell work in harmony with themselves and the police and especially with the juvenile authorities, and it is to be due to their insight into youthful nature that many a boy has been saved from the consequences of his waywardness that might otherwise

NEW RULE MADE BY EMBALMERS

The order of the State Board of Embalmers, which goes into effect this month, forbidding entrance of any person without the consent of the family to parlor where bodies have been placed for embalming, has created wide comment throughout California. The order is in keeping with the rules of the National Embalmers' Association. Violation of the rule is punishable by forfeiture of the embalmer's license. Morbid curiosity of the public in seeking admission to private undertakers' establishments and desire to witness the operation of embalming by many disinterested parties has led the State commission to post the new regulation. According to Mrs. Bessie Wood Gustafson, secretary of the board, the action has been taken to protect mourning families and to assure them against intrusion upon their dead.

have led to his ultimate and permanent undoing. "With the co-operation and co-operation of the two and the other constituted authorities, conditions in the police courts were said by crime students to be better than ever before in the history of the city, and it is to a continuation of this policy and steps to even greater efficiency that the two are pledged."

Under strike conditions best explained by Chairman Ben W. Hooper, of the United States Railroad Labor Board, in his statement of July 1, reading as follows:

"In this case, the conflict is not between the employer and the oppressed employees. The people of this country, through an act of Congress, signed by President Wilson, established a tribunal to decide such disputes over wages and working conditions, which are submitted to it in a proper manner. It is the decision by this tribunal against which the shop crafts are striking."

"Regardless of any question of the right of the men to strike, the men who take the strikers' places are merely accepting the wages and working conditions prescribed by a Government Tribunal and are performing a public service. They are not accepting the wages and working conditions which an employer is trying to impose. For this reason, public sentiment and full Government power will protect the men who remain in their positions and new men who may come in."

Adequate provisions have been made for the full protection of new employees, the same as old employees who remained loyally at work. TIVOLI TRIUMPH REPEATED WITH 'THE TOYMAKER'

Old Favorite of "Good Old Days" in S. F. Wins Audience at Auditorium.

When the Tivoli was the home of comic opera and Ferris Hartman was the principal exponent of the art of comedy, "The Toymaker" was adjudged one of the gala pieces of the engagement.

Last night "The Toymaker" was revived by Hartman at the Auditorium theater and by some strange chance the audience of the old Tivoli also was revived, for the first nighters were in many instances the same who applauded this delicious offering too many years ago to mention.

"The Toymaker" made its debut in San Francisco in a day when the calcium light was the thing. The gas light and the oil lamp were considered distinctly passé and the modern method of lighting with its varied theatrical possibilities was yet unborn.

From this viewpoint, it would seem that "The Toymaker" would be too old-fashioned, that its tunes, once considered so novel, would be old-style and inappropriate, that the acting would not be modern enough, that everything would be out of harmony with the life of today.

HAS KEPT ITS YOUTH.

Those who had the fortune to witness the 1922 premiere of "The Toymaker" will attest to the fact that the piece has lived through the intervening years, kept its youth, retained its original comedy appeal and proved one of the most entertaining offerings of the theatrical season in Oakland.

Hartman was greeted with salutes of applause last night but his was not a more heartfelt greeting than that extended to Paul Steindorff as he mounted the director's stand. Altogether it was a sort of theatrical house-warming for actors and patrons.

With the exception of Hartman and Steindorff the cast in "The Toymaker" was all new last night. Only those who were to have survived the years and kept the youth of the Tivoli period. Were it not for the fact that Hartman's boy and Steindorff's girl, Elfrieda, are in the cast, the audience would have been completely deceived.

"The Toymaker" will be remembered as the story of the old toymaker who spent his life in the perfection of a mechanical doll. His daughter, played by Elfrieda Steindorff, played very well, he becomes jealous of the automaton and breaks it. Then, fearing her father's anger, she takes the place of the doll until it is mended.

In the interim a young monk desirous of getting his uncle's money for his monastery and at the same time fulfilling the avuncular wishes that he marry, decided to marry the "automaton." From that point on the fun is fast and furious. Robert Carlson was the young monk last night and that rollicking "Jovial Monk" was one of the big hits.

Another musical triumph was Hartman's topical song "We Got Plenty" in which Hartman last night ad-libbed a couple of verses urging Oakland to get behind the Chamber of Commerce and participate in Oakland's boom.

The cast presented by Hartman and Steindorff was uniformly balanced and many individual hits were scored. The chorus showed the effects of careful and intelligent training and the stage direction was faultless. The scenic investiture and the lighting effects also won attention.

Because of the demand for "The Toymaker" it was announced last night that a special matinee will be given for the children on Saturday afternoon and free toys will be distributed by "the toymaker."

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Clothiers Plan For Convention Here in August

ARTHUR RAMAGE, Oakland merchant, who is arranging for meeting of State Clothiers' Association here.

Arthur Ramage Is Arranging for Entertainment of 250 Delegates.

Plans are being made by the local members of the California State Clothiers' Association for the annual convention to be held here at the Hotel Oakland on August 14, 15 and 16.

Arthur Ramage, well-known local merchant, is in charge of the plans for the convention, and is arranging for a series of unique and interesting entertainment features for the delegates. It is expected that about 250 delegates will be in attendance.

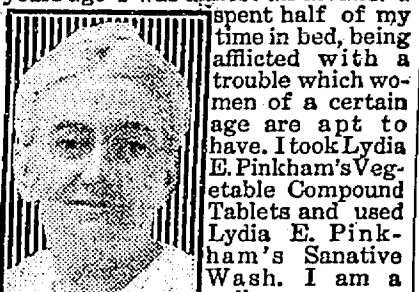

According to Ramage all sections of the state will be represented in a conclave and particular stress will be laid on the problems to be faced in the clothing business by men in Western cities. The problems of the East will also be discussed from a comparative standpoint.

The convention will conclude with sight-seeing trips about the city and its environs.

If you see it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn. — "Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. T. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain. If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a trial.

A Wonderful Skin Beautifier

All who have used Beauty Bleach are delighted with the results, because it clears the complexion of all blemishes—makes the skin soft and smooth.

Black and White Beauty Bleach is a dainty cold cream beautifier. It will not grow hair. Black and White Soap will assist Beauty Bleach in its beautifying properties.

Your drug or department store can supply you Black and White Beauty Bleach 50c the jar; Black and White Soap 25c the cake.

Clip and mail this to Plough, Memphis, Tenn., for free copy of Black and White birthday and Dream Book.

LENINE REPORTED MURDERED ON WAY TO BATHS

Soviet Leader's Body Then Hurdled Into River, Is Claim.

LONDON, July 18.—Nicolai Lenin of the Russian soviet government is reported to have been murdered, according to advices today from Copenhagen.
Lenin has been ill for about six months and various conflicting reports have been received as to the nature of his ailment and condition. According to the Rigsa Correspondent of the Evenska Dagbladet of Copenhagen, Lenin was reported to have been poisoned while on his way from Moscow to a Caucasian bathing place to take the cure. A rumor from Moscow said that Lenin's body was thrown from the train into the Don river at Rostov.

From the same source it was reported that a member of Lenin's suite is now impersonating his chief.

Several attempts have been made upon Lenin's life. Upon the occasion of his recent illness one explanation was he was suffering from stunts and fancy dances, will constitute the program. Dancing will be enjoyed at the conclusion of the numbers.
The committee on arrangements includes Lillian Harrington, Marguerite Harrington, Teresa Grosse, Vera Grosse, Mary Murray, Agnes Murray, Nora Cavanaugh, Catherine Kelly, Ralph Cavanaugh, James Cavanaugh.

Mrs. George Gould, ex-Stage Beauty
MRS. GEORGE J. GOULD, the bride of the well-known financier, who with her husband is now in Paris on a honeymoon. The couple were said to have been married in London, but kept this a secret for a week. Mrs. Gould, who is an English woman, came to America in 1914, where she appeared in "The Girl On the Film," one of Broadway's failures. At that time she was known as Miss Vera Sinclair. A friendship sprang up between the actress and the financier and he was known to have been a frequent caller at her New York home.—Copyright, 1922, by Marceau from Keystone View Co.

What's Happening in the Motor World

Information that a Durant Four touring car sealed in high gear made the run of 457 miles from Portland, Oregon, to Spokane, Washington, in seventeen and a half hours on Saturday afternoon, July 15, including stops for gas, oil and food, was sent to the local Durant offices by Al G. Waddell, advertising manager.
With Fred D. Hahn of Seattle driving, the Durant Four made the entire trip with apparent ease, and the motor was running perfect at the end of the journey.
No other car has ever made this time, Waddell claims, and the fact that the Durant was sealed in high gear makes the victory one of merit.
This model has accomplished several other laurels this season, including the "Rim of the World" trip in sealed high gear through the San Bernardino mountains, the first car over the Reno-Placerville road and the demonstration by a Durant Four durability car which has traveled over twenty-one thousand miles, maintaining an average of twenty-two and a half miles to the gallon of gasoline for the entire trip. This car is now touring through Washington and Idaho.

Sprinter Engaged as Physical Director

SANTA ROSA, July 18.—Morris Kivkey, the well-known Stanford sprinter, who is considered by many second only to Paddock, the world's greatest sprinter, has been procured by the board of education to take charge of the department of physical education in the Santa Rosa High school.

Missing Bride Is Found Wandering In Hills at Night

Wandering about in a hysterical condition and brandishing a loaded revolver, Mrs. Yvonne Cords, wife of a well known Oakland contractor, who disappeared from her home, 1770 Broadway, Sunday, was located last night in the hills back of Mantelair. She was first seen by Milton Doty, 31 Yosemite street.
Mrs. Cords, who is 22 years old, and a bride of only a few months, was disheveled and unable to give a coherent account of her wanderings.
"I am so tired," was all that she was able to say.
In reporting her disappearance to the police, Cords said that he had promised her that he would return at 6:30 and had been detained until after midnight. On the previous day, he told the police, they had quarreled, but it was over a trivial matter and not important enough to lead to a separation.
Police think that the woman, brooding over the quarrel during the hours when her husband failed to return home, became hysterical and wandered out into the night.

charge of the department of physical education in the Santa Rosa High school.
He was here a few days ago, but has returned to Los Angeles, where he has charge of the municipal baths for the summer. He succeeds Victor M. Hodge, who resigned to go into business for himself.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau Information

"Would you kindly give me a recipe for nice rich cookies?"
Cookies—Half cup lard, 1/2 cup butter, 2 heaping cups of granulated sugar, 2 eggs (beaten separately), 1/2 cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup water, 3 teaspoonsful baking powder. Flour enough to roll out as soft as can be rolled. Flavor with nutmeg, or the grated rind and juice of 1 orange or 1 lemon. Roll to about 1/4 inch thickness, bake in moderate oven on well buttered tins. Nut meats may be added when the nutmeg is used, or raisins.
"When did Ferris Hartman play in San Francisco? Did he play in the 'Bohemian Girl'?"
Ferris Hartman played at the Tivoli theater from 1898 until the earthquake and fire. The "Bohemian Girl" was one of the pieces in which he appeared.

Political Notes.

SANTA BARBARA, July 18.—J. Rodney Thompson, Santa Barbara attorney, who was endorsed at a meeting of Democratic leaders held recently in San Francisco, as the party candidate for Congress from the Eighth district, announced yesterday he would not make the race. He said political motives had nothing to do with his decision, but that he could spare neither a time nor the money necessary to make a thorough campaign in so large a district.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 18.—Conference with his constituents was the business of the first day of the campaign of Senator Miles Polindexter, for re-election, here today. He officially opens the campaign tomorrow night with an address at a local theater. Thursday the Senator will leave for Wenatchee, where he will speak that night. Friday he speaks at Leavenworth, and Saturday he will reach Seattle to open a three-week tour which will take him into every county in Western Washington.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—Mrs. Frances C. Axtell of Bellingham will file on the Republican ticket for United States Senator at the primary election next fall. Meeting here last night with representatives of the State Federation of Labor, Non-Partisan League, Railwaymen's political club and allied groups, Mrs. Axtell was formally tendered the support of these organizations and accepted it. She was voted the endorsement of the organizations at a joint meeting Saturday night. Mrs. Axtell said she would issue a formal statement of her candidacy later.

SAN DIEGO, July 18.—C. C. Moore of San Francisco, candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, spoke to a large audience at the Sprockels Theater yesterday and to another large crowd at Coronado Tent City last evening. Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, presided at the day meeting. Marshall Simson of Los Angeles spoke at both meetings.

Australian Jockey To Ride in England

LONDON, July 18.—With a record of having ridden 1500 winners in 17 years on tracks in the Antipodes, Barney Page, an Australian jockey, has just come to London to resume the saddle on English tracks. The first thing he did on landing was to apply for a license and the announce that he was anxious to know if he could teach anything to English riders.

Page invited the Australasian rule that forces a rider, once he has entered the jockeys' room at the track, to remain there until the day's racing is finished and to keep absolutely away from the public. This applies whether the jockey is working or not. "In Australia racing is booming and there are undoubtedly many good jockeys there," he said.

SHREDDED KRUMBLES

deliciously flavored WHOLE-WHEAT

Grow rugged children!

Give them food you know will make bone and tissue and red blood—food that will send them into the world as men and women physically and mentally equipped to win! Correct nourishment is vitally important!

KRUMBLES—with the full, delicious whole-wheat flavor for the first time in food history—is a builder of robust, rugged children. It contains all the food elements vitally needed in body building.

Every child should eat KRUMBLES at least once every day—and offset the starchy, denatured foods—foods robbed of life-sustaining qualities. Every spoonful of delicious KRUMBLES counts for health!

Men and women should eat KRUMBLES because they renew strength and fit them for the day's work. KRUMBLES provide the aged with food that sustains as nothing else can! Buy KRUMBLES at your grocer's!

The only whole-wheat food with a delicious flavor!

Ku Klux Klan Holds Outdoor Initiation

EUGENE, Ore., July 18.—The Ku Klux Klan held a big outdoor initiation ceremony on Emerald Heights, a hutte just outside the city limits of Springfield, last night and members of the organization stated that 150 candidates were given the ritualistic work of the organization. Candidates from Eugene, Corvallis, Albany, Harrisburg, Junction City, Springfield and smaller towns in this part of the valley were initiated, according to those taking part.

Three Bandits Are Captured in Battle

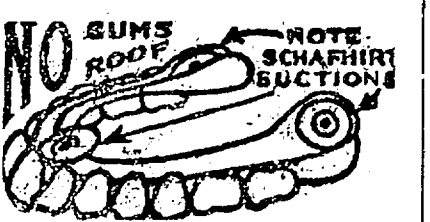

PORT WORTH, Tex., July 18.—Two bandits were shot and captured and a third surrendered after a battle at Valley View, near here, between a party of men who attempted to rob the postoffice and police and citizens.

Inventor of Roofless Plate

The advantages of roofless plates are: improved speech and taste; cool to the mouth; has several suction instead of one. It makes no difference if you have any teeth of your own or not.

My work cannot be had elsewhere. It has taken 8 years to perfect it.

Established in Oakland 12 years. Only one well regulated office with personal attention. Beware of cheap imitations. I make nothing less than $20.00 plates.

STARLIGHT

by Icahn McGlone Gibson

Virginia Fairfax, daughter of the first, are madly in love. Virginia learns that her father, her father, is alive. She is killed. Virginia receives a wire from her aunt, announcing her coming to San Francisco. She also learns Eddie Mantorsh, her childhood lover, is in town with a football team. With Mrs. Chester, Virginia goes to meet Eddie.

THE COLLEGE BOYS' PARTY.

"Don't you think that you look a little too sophisticated, Virgie?" asked Mrs. Chester soliloquously.

"That blue sequin dress makes you look at least ten years older. Or, maybe, it is your earrings."

"Oh, I must wear them, Mrs. Chester. Gloria gave them to me on her wedding day," interrupted Mrs. Chester. "It's your hair! I have never seen it piled on top of your head before. Your mop of blonde curls, falling loosely, is simply adorable, but it makes you a grown-up."

"Yes, but I want to grow up for Eddie," Mrs. Chester understood.

"That night at the college boys' party I had for the first time a taste of what I had imagined the life of a moving picture actress was."

Mrs. Chester was much more excited than I. She bridled and blushed like a girl as those boys came up to her so deferential and courteous and she confided to me that it had been a long while since a young man had paid any attention to her.

"Youth is all one thinks about in the moving picture world," she said a little wistfully.

She was grateful that these college boys were not like the egotistical, smirking set we had been used to. I had learned and Mrs. Chester knew that moving picture actors looked upon their work purely as a business. While they would be charming to a woman, make love to her, flirt with her in a social way, yet when it came to the studio, the camera or the spotlight, they were just rivals, cruelly ready to take advantage of everything that would put them forward at the expense of others.

But perhaps the boys we met that night would in later years assume the same attitude. The American man absolutely separates his business from everything else in his life. He may be a Dr. Jekyll everywhere else, but when he arrives at his office or his place of business he is certainly Mr. Hyde, ruthless in his definite purpose which makes him trample on every one and everybody in his eagerness and ambition to make what he calls a business success.

But tonight these boys were only adorable courtiers. I heard one of them telling Mrs. Chester that she reminded him of his mother and he thought his mother the most beautiful woman in the world. The boy on the other side said: "If your hair were blond instead of white, you would be the exact image of my first sweetheart, Mrs. Chester. She was a little older than I."

How I loved Mrs. Chester for her understanding when she turned to that boy with a smile and said: "That was sometime ago, wasn't it? I am sure that you have grown too old, too old and sophisticated to fall in love with a woman older than yourself."

I was having a much better time than Eddie. The team captain had placed him at the other end of the table and there he sat looking gloomily about. Taking pity on him I asked him to take me home as I had to work the next day.

Before we left the boys called on Mrs. Chester for a speech. It must have made them think that all the women of the movies were sublimated mother and sweethearts. Bowing to the applause as she arose she said:

"I'm going to put the memories of this night on a calendar and old lace for at no other time in my life have I had a great, handsome chap tell me that I was the picture of the most beautiful woman he ever knew."

Another dear youth exclaimed that I reminded him of his first sweetheart.

"Looking around this table every splendid, young face tells me—a childless old woman—that I have missed. In my heart I am going to adopt every one of you and no mother can be prouder of you than I am this minute. I am going to give you a message from your own mothers, boys. Tomorrow you will go forth to win. My heart goes with you in the battle, but I would rather see you lose than know that you had been by my little under-handed trickery, that you have not carried the real courage, the real manhood, the real sportsmanship."

How I loved Mrs. Chester for her understanding when she turned to that boy with a smile and said: "That was sometime ago, wasn't it? I am sure that you have grown too old, too old and sophisticated to fall in love with a woman older than yourself."

Polish Students Coming to America

WARSAW, July 18.—Six medical students from Polish universities have been selected to go to America to finish their studies preparatory to entering the new Institute of Hygiene recently established here by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Professor Selskar Gunn, representing the Rockefeller interest, has made the final choice of the students after a competitive examination organized by the Polish Ministry of Health. An endowment of $250,000 has been given for the establishment of the Institute by the Rockefeller Foundation.

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pleases and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. All druggists can supply you.—Advertisement.

The Original Goodyear Cushion Tire now equipped with The All-Weather Tread

Several years ago, Goodyear engineers invented and patented the Goodyear Hollow-Center Cushion Tire for motor trucks.

It was made with a soft base and attached to the wheel by side flanges.

This was the first hollow-center cushion truck tire of S. A. E. measurements.

Later this tire was improved by attaching to it a steel base, making it a "pressed-on" tire.

More than 30,000 of these earlier types have been used and have established a unique reputation for resilience and wear.

But these tires were smooth treads. Now the ultimate development has been effected by combining the virtues of the Hollow-Center Cushion Tire with the advantages of the world-famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread.

The result is the new Goodyear All-Weather Tread Cushion Tire.

Look at its outstanding features:

- 1—It has triple cushioning—due to the patented Goodyear Hollow-Center, the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread, and the new Goodyear Indented Sidewall.
- 2—It has the tractive might of the Goodyear All-Weather Tread.
- 3—It has a special Goodyear pressed-on base.
- 4—It has the wearing strength of Goodyear stock and construction.

The new Goodyear All-Weather Tread Cushion Tire is a true cushion tire, built to meet the special requirements of a particular type of hauling, and it is resilient to the last mile.

It is a logical development of the Goodyear Hollow-Center Cushion Tire, and it is a distinct and important advance on that splendid tire.

For other types of hauling, Goodyear makes other special tires. Sold and serviced by your Goodyear Truck Tire Service Station Dealer

Burns Are Fatal For Alameda Girl

ALAMEDA, July 18.—Miss Nelson, 6-year-old daughter of John Nelson, proprietor of a drug store at 846 Santa Clara avenue, died yesterday from fatal burns received when her clothes caught fire while she was playing with matches. The Nelson home is at 1420 Oak street.

When her clothes caught on fire the girl ran out on the steps of her home and attracted the attention of Howard Willford, 3208 Central avenue. Willford seized a robe from his automobile and succeeded in smothering the flames, but the child had been burned from head to foot.

EX-BANK CLERK HELD ACCUSED OF CODE FRAUD

S. F. Detectives to Seek Extradition of 'Archdeacon' From Canada.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Detectives are en route to Vancouver, B. C., to extradite Francis J. O'Connor, alias J. McKinnon, alias the Archdeacon, on a charge of swindling the Mercantile Trust Company of a large amount of money through the medium of alleged forged code telegrams.

O'Connor was arrested yesterday while trying to collect money from the Royal Bank of Canada on telegrams believed to have been forged and an indictment was returned against him by the grand jury here last night. O'Connor made victims of banks in Los Angeles, San Diego and other cities. It is charged.

According to the police, O'Connor, who was employed in the foreign exchange department of the Mercantile Trust Company, had access to the bank's private code in his capacity as auditor. He is accused of wiring the Southern Commercial Bank of Canada, where he was supposed to pay $750 to J. Weldon, valuing identification. A similar wire was sent the First National Bank of Los Angeles.

Shortly after sending the wire

CLAREMONT TO TENDER BLACK FINE RECEPTION

Robert Fitzgerald, president of the Claremont Country Club, announced this morning that members of the local organization were planning a reception for John Black, the club golf professional, who played second in the United States open golf championship tournament at the Skokie Country Club in Chicago last week. Black is due to arrive in Oakland at 1:45 tomorrow afternoon, according to word received by his brother, Bob Black, of the Sequoyah Club.

According to Fitzgerald, the reception will either take the form of a dinner or a gathering at which a cup can be formally presented to the club champion. A committee is to be appointed at once to arrange the details. R. H. Holabier is the most likely choice for chairman of that committee.

There is a possibility that the reception to Black might be held at the Claremont Club Saturday night, although definite arrangements have not yet been completed.

Slavery was abolished in Brooklyn, in 1825.

O'Connor appeared in Los Angeles as J. Weldon and secured $150, the police say, and ordered the balance of the fund, in trust for him, forwarded to the Royal Bank of Canada, where he was arrested yesterday. O'Connor disappeared from San Francisco on July 3. He went to work for the San Francisco bank June 21.

STATIONARY MEN MEET AND DECIDE NOT TO GO OUT

Firemen, Engineers and Oilers Decide Organization Men Will Stay at Work.

The first meeting of union men to decide whether or not to go out on strike in sympathy with the Federated Shopmen, held last night at the Stationary Firemen, Engineers and Oilers of the Eastbay district, resulted in a decision of that organization to remain at work. It was announced today.

The declaration by local labor leaders that the strike had added several hundreds, if not thousands, of former non-union men to the ranks of organized labor, was another important feature of the strike situation today.

The meeting of the Stationary Firemen, Engineers and Oilers was held last night at strike headquarters at Seventh and Pine streets.

AGREE TO REMAIN.

More than 100 members of the Eastbay local of the organization are said to have attended the meeting and to have agreed not to go out on a sympathy strike with the federated shopcraft employees.

The majority of the members of the organization are employed by the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe companies.

The meeting followed receipt of a Woman Driver Denies Blame for Death

Mrs. H. M. Shane, 720 Mandana boulevard, prominent in Piedmont society, today filed an answer in a suit brought against her several weeks ago for $20,000 damages.

The men are more determined than ever to fight it out," Gordon said, "as it is understood that the railroad men are fighting the suit for the purpose of disrupting their various organizations, regardless of the consequences to the men or to the public at large."

AGAINST OUT IN PAY.

"A large percentage of the shopmen who are out on strike are not union men. It was declared at strike headquarters at Seventh and Pine streets today. They went out, not because of the orders of labor leaders, but because they would not stand the proposed reduction in pay. These men are now drawing closer to the unions, and it is expected that a large percentage of them will affiliate with organized labor. We are not, however, conducting any campaign to this end, but are leaving it to the men themselves."

Shipments of goods and transportation of passengers are continuing without interruption, according to statement issued from headquarters of the various railroads affected by the strike today.

CLAIMED BY STRIKERS.

In a strike bulletin issued today by L. S. Gordon, secretary of the Federation of Railway Employees, No. 114, it is asserted that 38 per cent of the men employed by the railroads are on strike in all but four of the railroad yards in the

No Trouble to Keep Skin Free From Hairs

(The Modern Beauty)

There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered delatone with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for 2 to 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

VENEZUELA AIDS OIL PROMOTION

CARACAS, July 18.—The oil industry is greatly interested in the passage by the Venezuelan congress of a new petroleum law which is said to be more favorable than any previous similar law of this country, and to afford more workable conditions than any Latin-American law governing petroleum development.

Concessions for exploration are secured from the government in zones of 10,000 hectares each for a period of three years and for the payment of 2 cents per hectare as a tax. Within this period the contractor has the right to select up to one-half of each zone for exploitation. There is practically no limit to the amount of acreage allowed to one contractor, although there is a nominal limit of 300,000 hectares for exploration and one-half this amount for exploitation. Above these amounts the financial ability of the purchaser governs.

The exploitation period is forty years instead of 30 years, as formerly. An initial tax of 2 bolivars per hectare, or 16 cents per acre, is payable at the beginning of the exploitation period, and annual rentals of 10 bolivars per hectare are collected for the first three years, 4 bolivars per hectare for the succeeding twenty-seven years and 5 bolivars per hectare for the remaining ten years of exploitation.

Formerly the contractor was obliged to select his quota of acreage in parcels of 200 hectares each, in checkerboard fashion, leaving an equal area as a national reserve. Under the new law the parcels are of 500 hectares, or 1235 acres each, and these may be grouped as desired.

The government receives 10 per cent royalty except in areas 200 or more kilometers distant from the sea or from Lake Maracaibo, or in areas south of the Andes, the production from which pays only 7 1/2 per cent royalty. In similar areas taxes are reduced to one-half.

In former laws the contractor was obliged to deposit a guarantee amounting to as much as $1 per hectare to insure compliance with the terms of his contract, but no such guarantee is now required.

Former contracts may be adapted to the new law simply by amendment of the fact to the ministry of Fomento. It is probable that most of the companies and individuals now holding such former contracts will choose to operate under the new and more favorable code.

It was the intention of the Venezuelan authorities to create a law that would be practical and sufficiently attractive to stimulate the development of this important branch of the national resources. That they have succeeded is evidenced by the interest being shown not only by the oil companies already operating, but by the increasing number of representatives of petroleum interests now investigating conditions in this country.

MAD DOG ALARMS MANY.
TULOCK, July 18.—A mad dog rushing around the city on Sunday caused much apprehension and perturbation. The animal rushed at several groups of children, but was beaten off, and ultimately was shot.

FASHION FAVORS FLOWING FROCK, 'PICTURE HATS'

LONDON, July 18.—Observing the fashion world go by from a bench on London's "Rotten Row," one sees that the season's modes tend to more conservative skirts, higher waists, picture hats a yard wide and pointed American shoes.

The dressmaker's intent seems to be to cover what was once uncovered. Ankle-length skirts, voluminous sleeves, high necklines and loose-fitting gowns that subordinate the contour of the body seem destined to restore woman's lost charm of mystery.

Most frocks are of the flustering, flowing order which, caught by the breeze, look very graceful. Foulards are taking the place of georgettes and crepes of laces. Hats are draped with posies instead of being covered with plumes. Parasols are of fabled with wallpaper designs, or figures of green parrots or love-birds.

Long, narrow feet are the craze of the moment, and slender, high-heeled shoes of snakeskin are coming into vogue.

For evening attire backless frocks with diamond or pearl supports are popular with some women of fashion. Many evening gowns are of a new cloth of silver or gold that resembles molten metal and that shimmers and glitters brilliantly under the electric light. Trains are inclined to be shorter, and are usually of gold or silver net. The new transparent cloaks which are being worn trimmed with white, gray and black monkey fur.

Very little jewelry is worn;

SEATTLE FETES KLONDYKE RUSH

SEATTLE, July 18.—A pyrotechnical display on Lake Union, featuring a reproduction of the arrival of the steamship Portland bringing the first gold from the Klondike brought to a close here last night the first of a three days celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the gold strike of 1897.

Sour doughs thronged a local auditorium which was transformed for the time being into a typical gold camp of the old Alaska days, with a dance hall, "bar" and other attractions, as well as a display of miners' paraphernalia used in the far north.

Famous "Super-Sub" Is Sold as Junk

LIVERPOOL, July 18.—The former German super-submarine Deutschland has been sold to Kellogg's salesroom in Liverpool, for £200 to Messrs. Robert Smith and Sons, Birkenhead. She will be dismantled and sold as scrap.

The Deutschland ran the blockade during the war and made two commercial voyages to the United States.

WOMEN FIGHT FOR ADMISSION TO CAMBRIDGE

LONDON, July 18.—Oxford University now admits women freely to its degrees and to university membership, but Cambridge still locks its doors against them.

The women from the Cambridge colleges of Newnham and Girton have demanded admission to degrees and university membership on the same terms as men. Not long ago some 2600 of them signed a petition to this effect. The reply given by the university was polite, but unsatisfactory.

A deputation consisting of several members of Parliament, the heads of Girton and Newnham colleges and other friends of the movement recently talked with the minister of education. The minister made it quite plain that he was on the side of the women and would do all he could to persuade Cambridge to open its doors to them.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old-fashioned Sage Tea, Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Advertisement.

Says Dangerous Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced at Home

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunions, the best advice that anyone in this world can give is to get a prescription from many physicians are now prescribing.

Ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength), and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. It will soothe and soothe that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. It penetrates and dissolves the hard, bony growths and causes them to disappear. It is sold at all drug stores and at all pharmacies.—Advertisement.

WILKENS WEEPS AS LAWYER TELLS OF WIFE'S DEATH

Jacob Garnkel on the Stand
Relates Events Following
S. F. Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—While Henry Wilkens, automobile man, sat silently weeping and covering his face with his hands in a corner of the crowded courtroom, Jacob Garnkel, attorney-at-law, described the final death scene preceding the death of Mrs. Anna Wilkens, before Police Judge Sylvain Lazarus today. Wilkens, charged with complicity in the murder of his wife, was unable to restrain the tears that came when Garnkel told of the race to the Park Emergency hospital that followed the shooting of the woman in an alleged holdup on the night of Decoration Day.

Every seat was taken and there was a police guard outside the courtroom when the preliminary hearing was resumed. It was expected that the star witness for the state, Arthur Carter, would be on the stand and repeat his alleged confession implicating Wilkens in the killing, but Garnkel was called first.

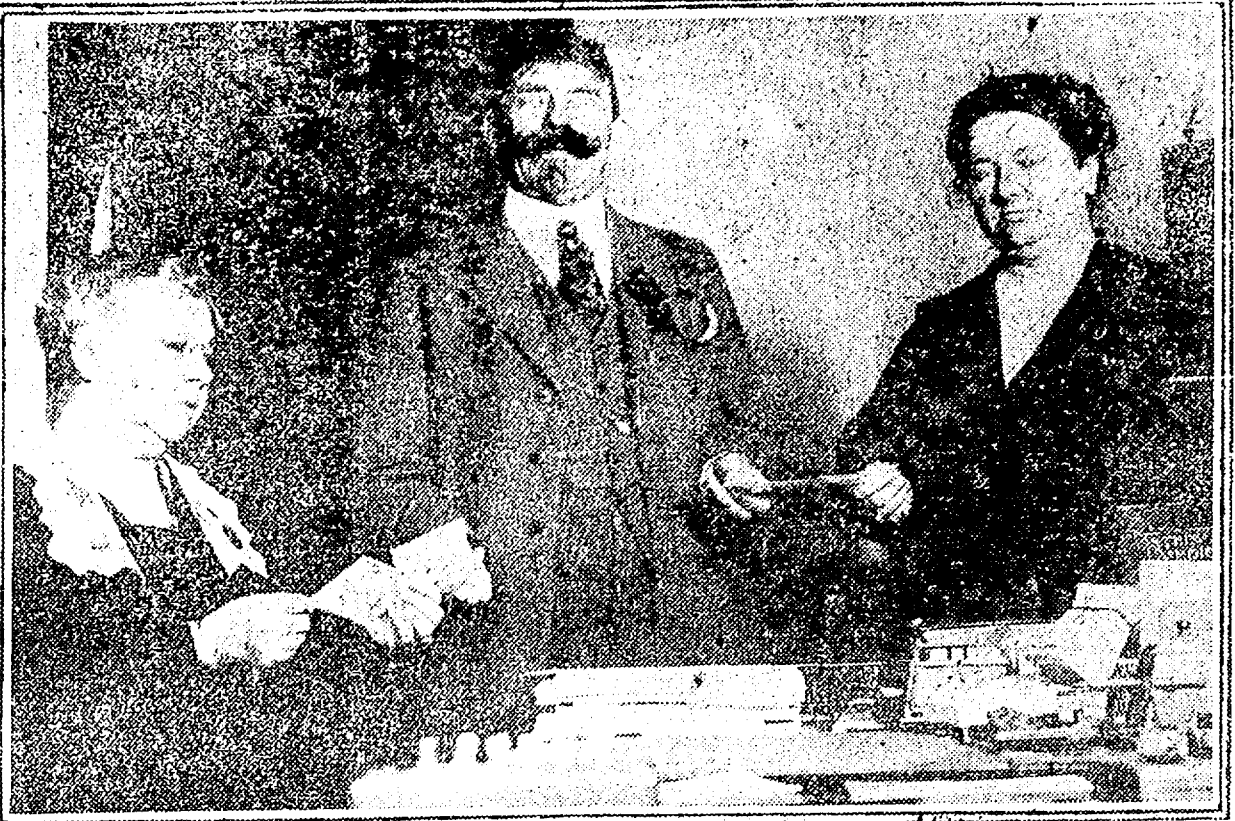

TELLS OF MURDER.
He told of leaving Palo Alto at 3:35 and coming down the Junipero Serra boulevard when two cars sped past. One was Wilkens and the other, he thought, was a blue sedan. Later he saw the two parked on Nineteenth avenue, one back of the other, and heard loud voices. About two blocks further he almost ran into a small car without a tail light, he said, and the big blue machine coming up almost immediately had a similar experience, dodged around the little machine and disappeared in Golden Gate park. A little later Wilkens drove up alongside of him, told him his wife had been shot and asked him to lead the way to the hospital. Both sped on at a rapid clip, using their horns freely and once Wilkens drew up alongside urging Garnkel to greater speed and saying "I fear my wife is dying."

CROSS-EXAMINATION.
Cross-examined by Attorney Frank Murphy, Garnkel said that Wilkens was excited and alternately disturbed and extremely calm at the hospital. He walked up and down, swearing, and repenting "Why did they not shoot me instead?" Garnkel testified.
He was questioned as to whether his sister, Miss Bessie Garfinkle, of 2655 California street, had been asked to identify the Hudson car and replied, "No, better keep the women out of it." This disturbed Murphy and there was a hot exchange of words between him and Assistant District Attorney Isadore Golden. Finally the court quieted the lawyers and the witness explained that his sister had agreed with him as to the car and that she shrank from the notoriety of a murder case. This was one of repeated tilts and bickerings between counsel.

Rail Unmerger to Be Debate Subject

Both sides of the Southern Pacific-Central Pacific merger case will be presented by competent speakers at the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange tomorrow evening. The court recently decided that the two railroads should unmerge and speakers representing the railroad companies will explain how this works to a disadvantage, while speakers representing the other side of the issue will explain why the court decision should be upheld.

Throngs Wait in Tent for Seats at Revival Meeting

By FRANK B. SCHUMANN.

Hundreds of the thousands who attended the Alameda Sempie McPherson revival meeting at the tent-tabernacle on Twenty-sixth street yesterday refused to leave the tent between the afternoon and evening meetings lest they lose their opportunity for a seat. Many of them had nothing to eat between the opening of the afternoon session starting at 2:30 until after the close of the evening session, close to midnight.

Two cases of reputed "faith healing" were reported during the afternoon altar call. One was that of Mrs. K. Peiser of 670 Twenty-seventh street, Oakland, who rushed to the altar and sobbed out a story of the cure of her left arm and hand which she claimed had been so afflicted with neuritis for the past two years that she had been unable to move it or to do anything with it. She then rushed away, stating that she wished to carry the tidings to her husband.
One of the other cases was that of J. E. Pallada, aged 65, of Port Brage, who stated that after suffering from a stroke of paralysis for over two years, during which time he had been unable to walk without the assistance of crutches, yesterday afternoon, after answering the altar call, he had dropped his crutch and walked alone for the first time. Although still in somewhat of a cramped position, he states that he has improved. He and his wife are staying at 330 Stewart street during the revival campaign, and were among those who refused to leave the tent during the intermission between the meetings.

More than a hundred answered the altar call at the close of the afternoon service, and a like number answered the evening call. Bibles were distributed to many who stated that they had never owned or read one. Some of these were people well along in years, one case being that of a man over sixty.

Yesterday afternoon's service opened with congregational singing led by Mrs. McPherson and was followed by special selections by the choir of over three hundred.

Announcement was made yesterday that beginning with next Monday special meetings will be held in the morning for blinders and church workers of the district who are interested in carrying on the work of the revival campaign after the close of the present meetings. An invitation was extended to the McPherson campaign yesterday afternoon giving free use of the Trinity House of the Trinity Episcopal church, at Twenty-ninth and Telegraph. Trinity House is to be used for preparatory and other side meetings between the regular revival services at the tent tabernacle.

Another meeting attended by thousands was held this afternoon and arrangements to handle a large gathering for this evening's meeting are being made.

Dr. K. Knox of Piedmont is leading the choir and is arranging special numbers which are to be rendered at the coming meetings.

Rev. G. Eichler, pastor of the German Baptist church at Lodi, offered a solo and delivered a short address.

A short testimonial service in which scores participated was held previous to the sermon. Many men as well as women were in tears as they testified.
The sermon on "Prayer," by Mrs. McPherson was opened with a solo by Dr. K. Knox, "Sweet Hour of Prayer."
"Denominational questions are to be forgotten during this revival," declared Mrs. McPherson; "we have no time for them."
That the ideal Christian home life in which the children were taught Bible stories instead of frightened with fairy tales was an important factor in the advancement of Christianity was the contention of Mrs. McPherson. The danger of some praying and the value of some who were declared as taken by some was more harmful than helpful.

"There is a danger that when some of us become Christians we stop as well as pray. If that is not so, we are no good," she stated.
Rev. R. C. Gray, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Berkeley, led the opening prayer at the afternoon service. A Bible Promise Service and special selections by the choir preceded the sermon by Mrs. McPherson on "The Holy Spirit." Miss Charlotte Moon, daughter of Rev. Moon, sang "Tell Me the Story of Jesus." Rev. Isaac Dawson, rector of the Church of the Advent (Episcopal) offered the closing prayer.

During the sermon Mrs. McPherson pointed out that many of the so-called good Christians were asleep as far as their duty to their fellow-man was concerned in assisting him in carrying his burden.

"Too many have put off the coat of service," she declared, "religion means much more than merely signing the church rolls and paying the dues or shaking the hands of the evangelist or minister."
The Howard Presbyterian church of San Francisco is to attend this evening's meeting in a body and will occupy a special reserved section.

PORTOLA FETE TO BE RENEWED BY S. F. YEARLY

Committee on Celebrations Arranges for Resumption in 1923.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—San Francisco will hold her Portola celebration in October, 1923, and then the Portola festival will be an annual affair. At a meeting yesterday of the old Portola committee which had charge of the celebrations in 1909 and 1913, this decision was officially made.

Philip T. Clay, who was chairman of the two previous committees, is also head of this one. The committee approved the plans for the coming celebration.

Harvey M. Toy is chairman of the Portola festival revival committee of the Northern California Hotel Men's Association. Appearing before Clay's committee yesterday Toy presented the endorsement of the project by 37 civic organizations of this city. He also requested on behalf of those organizations that the old Portola committee direct the 1923 festival.

According to Toy the response to the project has been practically unanimous in business and club circles.

Among the members of the committee on permanent organization are Philip T. Clay, Colonel George Filmer, Milton Eschig, Harvey Toy and Andrew T. McCarty.

Within the next few days further meetings will be held to formulate plans for the coming festival. Organization of the citizens of San Francisco for the festive activities will, it is anticipated go forward rapidly.

Support already pledged from neighboring communities indicates that all of Northern California will join in making the festival a success.

GIRL REVEALED AS A REFUGEE WITH CHINESE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Mrs. Wesley Mar, who was arrested in a dope den in Suisun on Saturday last, is a tragic story of her life, asserting that after her parents cast her out from home she found refuge with Chinese. Fong Choy, alias Wesley Mar, was taken by custody with the young woman, whose real name is Violet Clark, according to the officials. The couple is believed to have gone to San Francisco from Suisun. They were lodged in jail in Sacramento to be charged with violation of the narcotics act before the grand jury following their arrest. The case was set at $1000.

According to Special Agents of the United States Treasury J. W. Smith and E. E. Emlov upon her return from Suisun, she has been disgraced and her hands have been in the clutches of the Chinese, who has plied her with narcotics to keep her hold over her.

Paper Hats to Be Introduced at U. C.

BERKELEY, July 18.—They're wearing paper hats in Los Angeles, says Mrs. M. B. Landrum, who has arrived from the southern part of the state, who is the latest fashion novelty to students at the university summer session. Special classes in the making of the hats are being counted under university auspices for the summer students. According to Mrs. Landrum enough of the new hats cannot be made to supply the demand in the southern part of the state. The hats are being made in Wheeler hall.

Berkeley Couple Observe Anniversary

BERKELEY, July 18.—Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Greene, 1336 Grant street, celebrated the forty-third anniversary of their marriage on Sunday with a family reunion at their home.

Those present were the three daughters and families: Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Greene, Helen and Harry Green, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Valentine, Harold Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Yoel Jr., also Mrs. Retta Yoel and sister, Miss Swatz.

S. S. S. Fills Out Hollow Cheeks, Thin Limbs!

Men and women—whether you will ever build yourself up to your normal weight depends upon the number of blood-cells in your blood. That's all there is to it. It's a scientific fact. If your blood is poor, it's not working right, you will be run-down, thin, your blood will be in disorder, and you will feel weak and nervous. S. S. S. keeps your blood-cell factory working full time. It helps build new blood-cells. That's why S. S. S. builds up thin, run-down people, puts firm flesh on your bones, it rounds out your face, arms, neck, limbs, the whole body. It puts the "pink" in your cheeks. It takes the hollowiness from the eyes, and it fools Father Time by smoothing out wrinkles in men and women by "plumping" the skin. S. S. S. is a remarkable blood-purifier. While you are getting plump, your skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, acne, rheumatism, rash, tetter, blotches are being removed. The medicinal ingredients of S. S. S. are guaranteed purely vegetable. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Charter Amendments Approved; Go On Ballot

Proposed amendments and modifications to the city charter were approved by members of the city council in meeting today and will be placed on the ballot for the primary election, August 29. If carried, the changes will be presented to the state legislature for final adoption.

They provide for the following: Increases in the salaries of mayor, from $4200 to $7500 per year; city auditor from $3600 to $6000 per year, and city commissioners from $3600 to $6000 per year.

Makes the seven directors to the board of education appointive of the city of Oakland. They are now elected.

Creates a new board to handle the municipal museum and art gallery, to be appointed by the mayor and to consist of five members. This work is now being done by the library.

FAVORS EX-SERVICE MEN
A modification to the charter that in the cases of ex-service men who apply for positions as firemen or policemen, only one year's residence in the city will be necessary. A modification providing that a paper in the city of Oakland with general circulation can be used as the city's advertising medium. The present ordinance requires that the circulation of a newspaper must be 5000.

A modification that all boards of city government shall be appointed by the incoming mayor instead of the outgoing mayor.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION
The following proclamation was made public by Mayor John L. Davies:

To the People of Oakland:
Recent figures show that the registration of voters in Oakland totals only 76,102, a much lower figure than that of two years ago, in spite of our growth during that period.

The state election law provides that all voters must register this year, and in order to vote at the primary election on August 29, every citizen must register before July 29.

Our government is to be truly representative, every citizen should exercise his right of franchise. Only by the intelligent action of the voters can officials, who reflect the choice of the people, be elected to office.

The citizen who does not register has no vote.

Deputy registration clerks are stationed in all parts of Oakland, and those of our people who have not yet registered should do so immediately.

July 29 is the last day upon which to register for the election of August 29, an election which will determine many matters of importance to Oakland—the bond issue for the purchase of "The Redwoods," and important charter amendments.

I feel sure that those of our people who have not yet registered will realize the importance of registration, and I cannot urge too strongly the necessity of registering before July 29.

JOHN L. DAVIES,
Mayor of the City of Oakland.

Bonds for Estuary Span Urged for Fall Ballots

Whether or not a tube is preferable to a bridge in spanning the estuary, and whether a bond issue will be authorized for the construction of the tube, are questions which the voters may be called upon to decide at the November election.

This action was urged at a meeting of the harbor development committee of the chamber of commerce yesterday and a suggestion forwarded the board of supervisors that the referendum be invoked to facilitate the matter.

The committee also communicated with Senator Hiram Johnson informing him for the benefit of the senate that there will be "no unnecessary delay in the removal of the two bridges at Webster and Harrison streets," which the government has ordered.

At the present time the government has delivered an ultimatum to the board of supervisors that unless the bridges are removed and replaced before 1923 all government improvements of the upper estuary will be lost under the terms of the appropriation for harbor development, which was dependent on the removal of the waterway crossings.

EASTBAY PLANS ENTERTAINMENT OF FIRE CHIEFS

Delegates to Convention Will Be Guests of Firemen at Picnic and Outing.

Oakland and the delegates to the annual convention of the International Fire Chiefs' convention on August 17. The plans for the day are being arranged by Fire Chief Sam Short and the other fire chiefs.

One of the features of the day will be an automobile tour over the Skyline boulevard. There will also be a basket picnic luncheon at Idora park.

In order that a large number of the delegates will come here on Oakland day from San Francisco the convention committee has arranged that a regular business session will be held in this city. There will be over 1000 delegates in attendance at the convention in San Francisco and it is expected that most of the visitors will come here to spend the day.

When the party arrives they will be met at the trains and will be taken on the automobile tour. After luncheon the delegates will be taken to Berkeley to attend the session of the convention, which will be held in the Greek theater.

Three thousand dollars will be raised by the firemen to entertain the delegates. The city council and the supervisors have each donated $500 toward the fund. The balance will be donated by the Oakland Real Estate Association, Dry Goods Association and various insurance companies.

On July 27 there will be a benefit show given by the firemen at the Century theater. The proceeds will be turned over to the entertainment fund.

The convention opens in San Francisco on August 15.

SUN LIKENED TO ROOSEVELT

"What interests me most upon my return to Oakland, next to the extensive building program planned and being executed, is the drive of the Chamber of Commerce for increased support and wider activities. I find that the Chinese merchants are joining and subscribing very satisfactorily."

This was the statement issued today by H. S. Low, American Chinese merchant, who has just returned after a two years' trip in travel through the Orient. Low is particularly impressed with the reign of Dr. Sun Yat Sen in China. "China has plenty of capital and there are wonderful opportunities for Americans there," he said; "but there is a great need for industry and for honest public officials. Men of the type of Roosevelt and Lincoln are sadly needed in China."

Dr. Sun Yat Sen is a man of this type progressive, honest and earnestly seeking for the betterment of his country. He has made noteworthy improvements in Canton, his capital city. Particularly noticeable is the widening of the streets. The little narrow alleys have been replaced by thoroughfares 120 feet in width, with 30-foot streets and 20-foot sidewalks.

"Western civilization is slowly but surely regenerating China. It is opposed by the standpatters and supporters of the old regime, but they are in the minority. But I return to Oakland more and more impressed with her possibilities and rejoicing in the spirit now prevalent to take advantage of these possibilities."

There's danger of spoiling good coffee in roasting. One of the reasons for the smacking good flavor of M-J-B is the care we use in roasting. Every roast is exactly the same. M-J-B never varies.

WINERY LOOTING CHARGES FAIL TO REACH OFFICIALS

Thefts at Gier Establishment
Only Made to Press, Says
U. S. Attorney.

That the charges involving the alleged looting of the Theodore Gier winery on Eighteenth street since its seizure by prohibition officers were made only to a newspaper and not to any of the authorities, was the substance of statements made today from the offices of the United States district attorney, the collector of internal revenue and prohibition enforcement headquarters, following an investigation.

From each of these offices it was announced that no governmental action will be taken until the charges are formally presented to one or another of the proper authorities.

The charges were to the effect that large quantities of wine had been removed from the Gier warehouse since its seizure early last month, and that "parties," some of which were attended by women, had been held there.

"These charges were never made to this office," United States District Attorney John D. Williams said today. "They were reported to us by a newspaper. I immediately called up Gier's attorney, and they denied having made them."

Neither Prohibition Director Samuel Rutter nor Collector John P. McLaughlin of the Internal Revenue Department had officially heard of the charges, they said today.

G. D. Troy's Estate Filed With County

The estate of George D. Troy, former Oakland insurance man, will be divided between his two brothers, J. H. Troy Jr. and Miss B. H. Poorman, 319 Newman avenue, his secretary. The balance of his property is divided between the brothers, his former wife, Mrs. Jessie Troy, and Attorney John J. McDonald. The estate has not been made, but the estate is estimated to be of a value of more than $10,000.

Guilty Acknowledged Embezzlement Case

G. O. Gray, Berkeley insurance broker, today entered a plea of guilty in Superior Judge George Samuels court to a charge of embezzlement and applied for probation. The case was referred to Adult Probation Officer Leonard Compton.

Gray was arrested two months ago upon complaint that he refused to forward premiums for insurance which he collected from his patrons. The charge is based upon the specific complaint of a bakery on Center street, Berkeley.

Girl, 11, Rescues Sister in Blaze As Lodgers Flee

ROSIE ABOOD, 11 years old, who awoke her sister and guided her to safety when fire destroyed their home today.

Fire in Bakery Spreads to House; Occupants Are Driven to Street.

An entire block was threatened with destruction and several men, women and children, occupants of a rooming house, were driven into the street by a fire which early today gutted the bakery of John H. Stokamp, 1356 Fruitvale avenue. The damage caused by the flames has not yet been estimated, but the bakery shop was most severely damaged and a quantity of machinery was destroyed.

Among the lodgers in the rooming house which was over the bakery, were Stokamp, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schmitt, Mrs. Z. Abood and her two daughters, Rosie, 11, and Cecilia, 14 years old. They discovered the fire when they awoke in bedrooms filled with smoke. All reached the street in safety, and an alarm was turned in.

The conflagration began downstairs in the bakery shop, presumably from the ovens. It spread rapidly through the building, and burned its way through the ceiling into the rooming house.

Rosie Abood awoke her sister and holding her hand, guided her through the smoke to the stairway to the street.

For a time it was feared that the blaze would spread to other buildings before firemen got it under control. The stock-in several adjoining stores was damaged by smoke and water.

Battalion Chief Martin Carlson who was on the scene with the first piece of apparatus, turned in two alarms and stations in the district all available men and equipment.

The fire started at about 6:45 o'clock.

30 Heirs to Share In Brown Estate

The estate of Mrs. Nellie M. Brown, former resident of Berkeley and widow of a former superintendent of the United States Mint in San Francisco, will be divided between some 30 heirs, according to the terms of her will, on file with County Clerk George Gross. An only son, George Brown, formerly a messenger of the State Savings Bank, died in 1904, and has never been heard from. No provision for him, in case he should return, is made in the will.

The estate is valued at approximately $40,000, and includes real estate, bonds and stock in the State Savings Bank of Oakland. Robert J. McMullen, cashier of the bank, is named as executor.

Nurse Claims Share In $230,000 Estate

Whether Mrs. Catherine Martin Clark, an army nurse stationed at Camp Kearney, shall be given an allowance of $1000 per month from the estate of her late husband, Amos Clark, Berkeley capitalist, will probably be decided Thursday by Superior Judge E. C. Robinson. Arguments over the application started in Judge Robinson's court yesterday and were continued to Thursday.

According to testimony taken yesterday, Mrs. Clark in September, 1920, signed an agreement in which she accepted $2500 as her share of his possessions, and thereafter lived separately from him. The estate is valued at $230,000.

By Clark's will the estate is given to a group of nephews and nieces.

FURNITURE WEEK SETS NEW MARK FOR ATTENDANCE

Exhibits Also Surpass Former Conventions; Buying Is Extensive.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—It was unanimously declared today by officers and delegates of the furniture dealers' convention and Market Week, now taking place in San Francisco, that the gathering is the most successful in the history of the furniture trade in the West. This is true, it was stated, not only from the point of view of attendance but from the point of view of the exhibits, which are described as being better and more numerous than ever before. The exhibits are on display at the Furniture Exchange, New Montgomery and Howard streets.

This week purchasing on the part of the furniture men, it is estimated, will run into the millions of dollars. As a result of Furniture Week, it is estimated that Western furniture stores will be stocked with the latest in the way of household furnishings.

An intensive course in interior decorating features the daily and nightly sessions of the furniture men.

There are nearly 1000 exhibits, representing the best from factories of the East and West. These include furniture, draperies, bedding, stoves, lamps, kitchen furnishings and all household goods. The Exchange is not open to the general public but being thronged daily with furniture men.

There was a luncheon today in the ballroom of the Palace hotel, at which Mrs. E. Abood, who spoke on "The Woman Who Buys and the Man Who Sells."

Later in the day the furniture men held a round table discussion on advertising. The speakers included Newton B. Drury and J. H. Ward of Berkeley. Professor Bernard C. Jakway will speak at this evening's session on "Increasing Sales Without Cutting Profits."

NOT A FLAPPER AT U. C., CLAIMS SENIOR CO-ED

BERKELEY, July 18.—"There ain't no such animal as a real flapper on the campus," says Frieda Mae McGee, senior student at the University of California, who recently won first prize in an essay contest conducted by a western magazine to determine the status of the modern co-ed.

"The flapper just simply isn't," says Miss McGee, who is registered at the University from the Hawaiian Islands. "I've lived, studied, worked and played with several thousand of what is supposed to be the most violent type of the species for three years and I know what I'm talking about."

Miss McGee resents the present-day criticism of the co-ed who bobs her hair, wears short skirts, horn-rimmed glasses and makes the grade to home and mother frequently after 1 a. m.

When this type of girl marries, says the writer, "she'll be a better housewife, a truer partner, a more intelligent, more capable wife and mother for her four years in college."

Elmer Dover Quits Treasury Position

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By International News Service.)—The resignation of Elmer Dover, assistant secretary of the treasury, will be accepted by President Harding, it was announced at the White House this afternoon. Dover was the stormy petrel of the most serious patronage row that has yet occurred in the Harding administration, involving the shake-up of many of the bureaus in the treasury department. It was said Dover was dissatisfied with the policies of the treasury department, this dissatisfaction leading to his resignation.

W. H. Clark, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and former president of the park board, was a visitor today at the office of the park board. He is in favor of the proposed purchase of the Redwood peninsula grounds. He says that the city never will regret the purchase of the Redwoods. In Clark's home town they have a chain of parks covering 2600 acres. The parks are connected by a boulevard 23 miles long.

BACK FROM YOSEMITE
SAN LEANDRO, July 18.—(By Associated Press.)—Marvin Bradley, real estate man, accompanied by members of his family, returned to this city today from a week's stay in the Yosemite valley.

Mule-Skinners Wanted--Must Speak Hee-Haw

MERCED, July 18.—Wanted, old-fashioned "mule skinnners" who can talk the language the mule understands. Apply at camp 6, Merced Irrigation District.

Superintendent M. J. Caton, who has charge of operations up there in the foothills, where the ground is being torn up for the Lake Yosemite-Le Grand canal, says there is no substitute for the muck and lowly and down-trodden mule for work that the mule can do, and that a great dearth of practised "skinnners" hampers conditions at the camp.

Caterpillars tear the hard earth into huge chunks and sub-soilers mash them up somewhat. Then the loosened earth is scraped into place by Fresno scrapers drawn by mules. Nothing has ever replaced the mule for this purpose, nor is likely to, declares Caton.

"We have tried out a lot of men who claim to be mule drivers, he says, "but they seem to know more about cranking an automobile than about handling mules. They can't talk so that a mule understands the situation and they are peculiar animal and requires a special line of language to get the best out of it. Only the old-time 'skinnners' have a sufficient vocabulary to meet the situation and they are scarce. Right now we have two or three teams in the stable for lack of good drivers. A college man came up here from the University of California and said he could handle mules. One nearly kicked his head off when he yelled at it to get into high. It didn't understand that kind of talk. I wonder where are all the real 'skinnners' of yesterday? We sure do need them here."

BENSON PRAISES HARBOR OF S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—San Francisco is the greatest of all the ports of the world, Rear Admiral W. S. Benson of the United States Shipping Board told members of the Commercial club at a luncheon yesterday. Other speakers were Commissioners George C. Chamberlain of Oregon and Meyer Lissner of Los Angeles.

Benson declared that in all his travels around the world he never found a harbor which could compare with San Francisco bay. He said that the shipping board should be in closer contact with the Pacific Coast because the ports of the Philippines, South America and committee centers on the Pacific.

"I've lived, studied, worked and played with anything that comes," said Admiral Benson. The speaker said that, in his opinion, there is too much jealousy between the West coast ports. "I wish that you get together, study the problems of imports and exports and study out how ships can best be utilized to handle the situation."

Husband Charges Cruelty, Desertion

Robert Oberg, formerly of Scotland, Humboldt county, today filed suit for divorce from his wife, Elsie Oberg, whom he charged with desertion and cruelty. Oberg, who is a native of Germany, declared his wife went to Tuolumne to reside that "she could be near a man in whom she was interested."

After three months he went to Tuolumne to plead with her to return to him, but he declares she refused and told him she did not want to see him again.

SENTENCED FOR THEFT.
George Thomas was today sentenced to 180 days in the city prison by Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell after being convicted of the theft of two charges of petit larceny. He is alleged to have stolen a watch belonging to R. A. Eaton and a suit of clothes which was the property of H. Coons.

WOMAN TO FACE ARRAIGNMENT IN HAMMER MURDER

Sphinxlike Attitude of Wife Charged With Slaying
Puzzles Officials.

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—Mrs. Clara Phillips, charged by indictment with the murder here last Wednesday of Mrs. Alberta Tremaine Meadows, was arraigned in the superior court today and her attorneys asked time to plead. They were granted until Thursday. Mrs. Phillips was entirely composed.

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—By United Press.—Guilty or not guilty?

Mrs. Clara Phillips answer to that question when she is arraigned before Judge Houser today will solve the greatest uncertainty in the "hammer murder" case.

The impenetrable mask behind an incessant smile that Mrs. Phillips has assumed has kept in doubt even the officers who have questioned her as to the course she would follow when brought to trial for her alleged frenzied onslaught upon Mrs. Alberta Meadows in which the object of her jealousy was battered to death with a hammer.

Her posture has never been one of admitted guilt, but she has made no move to deny the charge against her, leaving the way open for any last-minute change of plan. Her calm and evasive demeanor since her arrest has caused many to believe that she is preparing to make some unexpected and sensational defense.

Her attorneys in a formal statement have declared that "all we can say at this time is that, despite the apparently damaging case against her, the facts of the murder found her exceptionally keen-witted, and alienists who have examined her have reported no unusual reaction."

While Mrs. Phillips today is pleading in Judge Houser's court, funeral services at the same hour will be in progress for her alleged victim.

'S. O. S.' Calls Send Relief for Vessel

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The coast guard station here received an S. O. S. call from an unidentified vessel giving its position as twelve miles east of Grosse Point, Evansville, shortly after noon.

The steamship Carolina of the Goodrich line, a few miles away, was directed by wireless to proceed, to the position given.

A coast guard crew left Chicago light shortly after 1 o'clock for the scene. It will take the craft about three hours to reach the scene.

May Morgan Is Witness in Divorce

Upon the corroborating testimony of Supervisor Margaret Mary Morgan, of San Francisco, James M. Speegle, an employee of the Walter N. Brunt Company, of San Francisco, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from his wife, Mrs. Susie Speegle, by Superior Judge T. W. Harris today. Speegle accused his wife of cruelty, claiming that she neglected him a dog, a brute and a bull.

BAND CONCERT, TALKS TO OPEN S. O. S. CAMPAIGN

Prominent Speakers to Start Drive to Buy Redwoods at Meeting Tomorrow.

An open air concert by the Oakland "Lumbermen's" band, by speakers in the Memorial park campaign, will open the headquarters of the "Save Oakland's Sequoias" committee in the Oakland Title Insurance and Guaranty company's new building at Fifteenth and Franklin streets at noon tomorrow. Speakers will include Edgar S. Hurley, president of the Central Labor Council, supporter of the park project; Commissioner of Public Works Albert E. Carter; William Moorehead, president of the Carpenters' Union, who has pledged the vote of the carmen to the bond issue, and Marston Campbell, member of the Park Board.

For nearly three years the Contra Costa hills "club" supported by the Park Board and the civic, social and labor bodies of the city, has endeavored to get the park issue before the people on a ballot. And now the City Council has decided to put the issue to the voters on August 29.

NOON MEETING.
The noon-day meeting tomorrow will emphasize the enthusiasm that is rapidly spreading throughout the city in support of the proposed park bond issue. The voters will also determine whether or not $100,000 shall be provided in the measure for immediate improvement of the Memorial park should the bonds carry.

Meanwhile plans are under way, directed by Harold French, president of the Contra Costa hills club, to have hikes and picnics in the famous grove of redwoods, on the crest of Redwood Peak.

Speakers on the proposed park bond issue are available at campaign headquarters. A telephone call to Oakland 335 will find John M. Kluncan, secretary, on the job, and he will provide a speaker for any day and hour.

"S. O. S." BUTTIONS.
Then there are the "S. O. S." buttons, which interpreted read "Save Oakland's Sequoias." The campaign of membership in the Memorial park committee which is hoped will embrace thousands of Oakland citizens. These buttons, designed by Fred E. Reed, chairman of the finance committee, are rapidly making their appearance in the laps of Oakland's citizens. Membership in the financial practical matter is $1 and each member is given a button.

Residents of Alameda, especially in the most exclusive districts, have opposed the inroads made by apartment houses and flats on the ground that they constitute a depreciation to surrounding private property. The need of apartments and flats has been felt for years. The apartment house is to be built at 600 street and San Jose avenue if the city council approve the reclassification of the district.

KEY ROUTE NOT TO TAKE HASH OFF ITS BOATS

Stories broadcast and circulated in the highways and byways that the celebrated Key Route hash is to be consigned to the tender mercies of the sea gulls rather than tugging the gourmandish palates of the commuters are untrue.

W. R. Alberger, general manager of the Key System, rose up today and declared that the hash stories are "grossly incorrect." The fact that the system is to acquire new electric cars, valued at $1,000,000 each will not interfere with the hash problem.

Although the boats will cut down the traveling time, says the manager, the restaurant service will be speeded up accordingly, says the general manager, and the commuters will be furnished the same old hash with the proverbial doughnuts and coffee and all the other regular menu on the side.

The new boats, with a carrying capacity of 3000 will be in operation the latter part of this year.

tored to Modesto today to inspect a recently purchased twenty-acre ranch in that city.

Civic League Plans Municipal Ticket

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—At a luncheon held at the Palace hotel yesterday by the platform committee of the Civic League of Improvement Clubs, it was decided that the league would initiate and support its own municipal ticket in all elections following the next one. The usual independence of the league will be followed this year.

Locomotive Magnate Talks Optimism

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—President Stephen M. Vachell, of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, who is making a tour of the country, is at the St. Francis hotel with members of his family. He will depart for the north on Wednesday. He speaks optimistically of conditions in the country, referring to the railroad and coal strikes as minor disturbances.

Rolph Favors Delay In Railway Purchase

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The proposed purchase of the Market Street Railway Company's properties by the city will be indefinitely postponed, if the recommendation of Mayor Rolph's committee is carried out. The recommendation was made in a report filed with the board of supervisors yesterday by the committee. It was stated that the committee was unable to negotiate officially with the company.

Residence District Apartments Favored

ALAMEDA, July 18.—Approval of the plan to open up of the market exclusive residential districts of Alameda to apartment houses was given last night by the board of directors of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce in a special session. The petition for the reclassification of the district to allow the construction of a $100,000 apartment house is now before the city council for consideration.

Ex-State Official Urges S. P. Divorce

RICHMOND, July 18.—Frank R. Devlin, former president of the California Railroad Commission, spoke before the local Lions den at a luncheon here today. He urged that all possible support be given by the people of California to the attainment of the letter and spirit of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court ordering the divestment of the Central Pacific railroad from Southern Pacific control.

THE SHIPPING HEARINGS.

The hearing being conducted in San Francisco by three members of the United States Shipping Board, it would seem, can do little more than emphasize the need of a ship subsidy. Peculiarly it is called upon to ascertain that which cannot be apparent until encouragement is given to American shipping.

The Shipping Board members here are seeking information as to the shipping being done under the American flag from Pacific to foreign ports. If it is found there has been a marked increase, if the facilities may be described as "adequate," the board is empowered to recommend action to the Interstate Commerce Commission which will result in lower rail rates. In other words, the long withheld Section 28, known to shippers as a promise only, may be applied. Under it goods shipped by railroads to points from whence they are to be shipped under the American flag to foreign ports may be given a preferential.

Section 28, Pacific shipping men say, would work no benefits to this coast if applied now and without the benefits of the ship subsidy bill. Its effect would be, many shippers say, to give Atlantic ports an advantage over those on this coast, because, under existing conditions, the foreign ships would load goods there and take advantage of the preferentials which are now in effect on the eastern seaboard. A large American merchant marine on the Pacific is needed before the ruling may apply here.

If the preferential were to go into effect and if the merchant marine bill before Congress were to pass, there would be no question. American bottoms are waiting to take American goods to foreign ports once the business can be made to pay. It is unfortunate that the promise of help which would make performance possible is held contingent upon that performance. "If you will fly first," said the bird to the caterpillar, "I will give you wings."

DAMMING THE BLUE NILE.

Once again an army of British is going into Khartoum. This time it will be a force armed with blueprints, shovels, picks, and dredges. The Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, situated between the two forks of the world's most historic river, is to be made a granary for all the Sudan, the Blue Nile is to be dammed and an agricultural empire is to be built.

Lake Tsana, in the highlands of Abyssinia, lies in a basin resembling a crater. It is to become an irrigation reservoir for the benefit of a vast area. A land almost devoid of inhabitants or any form of agriculture will be made fertile and green. The scheme, if carried out as planned, will make the interior of Egypt a rival for that section near the mouth of the Nile; will do for the upper reaches what the Assuan dam has done for the lower. It will aid in the control of floods, will be a force for stability and prosperity, and may remove the mystery and the stigma attached to a district called among the most wicked and treacherous in the world. Very little is known of the Lake Tsana region. The record says the men there are "unashamed of any crime or vice," perpetrate their crimes with indifference and recount them with gaiety and laughter.

Opportunity for wealth and industry is to be carried into the wilderness and waste places, a dam is to be brought to the damned.

The people of the Turlock Irrigation District voted almost twenty-to-one to distribute their share of water and power from the Don Pedro dam. In the Modesto part of the district the vote was two-to-one for the same policy. The statement is due to Turlock which has been placed in a wrong position in an argument designed to show that city's and that district's wisdom in outlining a program for co-operation with the Modesto District.

There was a lack of agreement on fundamental issues and, instead of quarreling and laying the foundation for years of ill-feeling, the two places ascertained upon what common ground they could stand. Then each decided to build its own transmission line from the dam and harmony has prevailed. In commenting upon this same way of meeting a problem THE TRIBUNE, quoting from a despatch, said the surplus power in the Turlock district would be sold to a power corporation. While the point is somewhat aside from the one discussed, commendable initiative toward a good-feeling between cities, it has brought forth the request for a correction which is gladly made.

A NEW VITAMINE.

Announcement of the discovery of Vitamine D and of a forthcoming description to be furnished by the laboratories of the Johns Hopkins Institute has revealed for the first time, to many persons, the classification of these food requisites. Vitamines A, B, and C, the scientists say are accepted, their habits and their worth are attested and there is no telling how many others may be hidden in the daily menu of the human family.

Since the discovery of the vitamine by Dr. Casimir Funk it has been the subject of more or less heated discussion. The word would mean it was essential in the chemical processes of life. The experiments which have convinced the expert of the presence and value of the vitamins were largely ones of deprivation. Restricted diets caused certain diseases or effects.

Thus it was determined that the absence of Vitamine A, which is found in the green leaves of various plants, milk, butter fat, glandular tissues of many animals and in many animal fats, may cause a breaking down of the tissues of the eyes. In the lack of this vitamine, it is claimed, is to be found the cause of rickets. Codliver oil contains a great quantity of this particular vitamine.

Vitamine B, the scientists say, is composed of two substances and is to be found in bread-stuffs and yeast. Its absence is supposed to have occasioned beriberi. In grains, peas, eggs, oatmeal and yeast it is to be met. One goes to fresh fruits and many of the vegetables for Vitamine C, a more recent discovery. It represents what has been known for years, the value of fresh fruits and vegetables in the treatment of scurvy and is quickly destroyed by cooking. Peculiarly, canned tomatoes are said to be rich in Vitamine C.

Of the latest member of the Vitamine family no information has been forthcoming. Dietitians profess an eager interest in the announcement promised within the next few weeks; books, no doubt, will be written of properties of the newest food element to be isolated and studied, and the world will go on eating much as it has done in the past.

Out of all the study of vitamins, and this is encouraging for the man who has no time to make an art of his diet, there is emphasized by science the old-fashioned rule of the home. Milk products, fresh vegetables, and fresh fruit, by the rule of vitamins, are the best food.

THE FURNITURE MEN.

The furniture dealers' convention in San Francisco this week reveals the fact that in San Francisco and Northern California is the furniture center of the Pacific Coast. The Eastbay has a large part in this newer industrial story, for chairs, beds, desks, stoves, doors, mattresses and other articles for home furnishing are made here. Prominent in the convention's activities are the furniture retailers and manufacturers of the West. The magnificent Furniture Exchange Building of San Francisco is the scene of the convention and there the delegates, including those from this city, are being entertained with genuine hospitality. Oakland and the Eastbay joins with San Francisco, the furniture center, in extending a welcome to a group of men whose business it is to make living more comfortable.

The lumber of the whole country is to come from the West. Through this port come the rarer woods from the Orient, from which more pretentious furniture is made. There is apparently no reason why the center of western furniture making will not become, in time, the center of the industry in America. A few more years of progress, such as that made in the last five, will bring this about within a generation.

TALK NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

It is to be hoped that one of the phases of the campaign to promote Northern California will be to start Northern Californians to talking more about themselves and less about our good friends in the South.

We have talked so much about Los Angeles here in the North that about 99 per cent of the population believes that that city leads in the percentage column of industrial development.

Freely admitting that Los Angeles is a wonderful city, yet the fact remains that Oakland stands at the head of California's percentage column in the value of Oakland's manufactured products has matter of industrial growth.

During the past five years the increase in the home the following comparison with that of other leading cities of the State: San Francisco, 157 per cent; Los Angeles, 170 per cent; Berkeley, 287 per cent; Oakland, 372 per cent.

The increase in the capital invested in the same cities during the past five-year period has been as follows: Los Angeles, 56 per cent; San Francisco, 124 per cent; Berkeley, 184 per cent; Oakland, 226 per cent.

The increase in horsepower installed for industrial purposes in the four cities has been as follows: Los Angeles, 46 per cent; San Francisco, 61 per cent; Berkeley, 114 per cent; Oakland, 166 per cent.

Not a bad showing, is it?

And the thing to be noted is that Oakland, a Northern California city is progressing industrially faster than any other city in California.

Northern Californians should take note of the facts. And when we talk and write, we should let the world know what the facts are.

Let's boost our own game for a while.—Oroville Register.

DAILY ALMANAC

Tuesday, July 18.

There was a slave riot in Philadelphia in 1855. . . . Chance for the old joke about waking that city up. . . . Note how chance is ignored. . . . Ursinus was born in 1534. . . . Petrarch died in 1374. . . . The melon crop is to start moving in carload lots from Turlock. . . . The Constitution escaped from the British fleet by keeling in 1812. . . . When a mariner kedges he tosses out a weight or anchor and moved his boat by pulling it up to the weight. . . . Picture the Constitution sneaking out in that manner, a slow crawl but not to be noticed. . . . The first Women's Rights Convention was held in 1848. . . . And oh, the jokes, the rhymes, and the serious articles which were written!

To Our Ilkies.

You're traversing now, where great trees nod,
The solemn aisles, the groves of God.
Forgotten, the tumult of garish town—
Jitneys to limousines up, and down;
Butcher-boys dodging an auto-truck,
Invoking traditional darn-fool luck;
Widowers, flappers, advancing the spark;
U. C. students save the mark;
All the fiendish hullabaloo
Lost where life can be calm and true,
Where ever upward the long trails turn
Toward planets that in their majesty burn.
CLAUDIUS THAYER.

Not the Small Ones.

For the benefit of a few who have expressed a feeling of injury because the country press has furnished some of the examples of those things which get into newspapers and furnish fun, the Almanac calls attention that it is the large city press which offends most often. Clippings used in this column show the typographical error is no respecter of importance or circulation.

Putting One Over.

According to George Ade, a young man who was exceeding wise in his own home town paid a visit to New York. He felt in advance that he was the very person to put it all over those big city sharpers. And on his return he told how he had done just that. Like this:

The visitor had unconsciously blocked the Wall Street traffic while standing aloft a flock of pigeons flying about the skyscraper tops. Finally a burly stranger in an elevator starter's uniform seized him by the arm, dragged him to the sidewalk and gruffly demanded what he was doing.

"Counting the pigeons," honestly replied the stranger.
"That ain't allowed here," growled the uniformed stranger. "It's goin' to cost you just one dollar apiece how many d'ye count?"
The youth had an idea. "Eight," he slyly answered, and triumphantly paid his bill. When in truth, he had counted twelve.

"Scientist to study the coyote." Why not ask him if he pronounces his name with two or three syllables?

"Have you noticed," writes R. Spinkewitz, "that the letters and speeches added to this dye controversy have failed to change the color of the argument?"

And when one sings, "let's save the birds,"
Some fellow, like as not,
"I'll save the bird, in stew or stuffed That eats my apricot."

The bird that lived its nest with a twenty dollar bill may have heard that humans have that way of feathering their nests.

Mary Austin said the American child needs spanking. It is a good thing for the peace of the Berkeley Summer Session and American letters Geraldine was not in the house.

Another good thing about the radio is that, whenever a musical comedy star sings, the elderly gentlemen need not fear she is going to come down and kiss them on their bald heads.

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT.

NOTES and COMMENT

Mr. L. E. Hammerstein of San Francisco may not enjoy a world fame, but when he talks in this way, as he is represented to have talked to a representative of the Washington Post, he doesn't go very far afield: "There has never been a strike in the history of the nation in which every one concerned did not lose. Usually one side loses less than the other, but nobody wins. It is very evident that this is true when we stop to consider that a strike means a cessation of the production of wealth and that the time lost during the interruption can never be made up."

Chicago, News: "Those who insinuate that liquor still flows freely in the highest circles are put to shame by Mrs. Percy Rockefeller's account of the blizzard on Mount Washburn. 'Our first concern,' says Mrs. Rockefeller, 'was to get Mr. Fuller, our chauffeur, warmed up.' And what form of first aid did they apply to Mr. Fuller? They gathered kindling and built him a roaring fire!"

The Washington Star sizes it up thus: "A few Germans are evidently under the impression that the way to get out of debt is to fight among themselves—a policy which has never succeeded in business or government."

Cynical shaft from the Kansas City Times: "If it wasn't that Madeline fainted in her cell we would have completely forgotten that the leading industry in Los Angeles, which is trying her for murder, is still in full activity."

The Oregonian: "The national convention of the Bottle Blowers' association has adopted resolutions enthusiastically favoring light wines and beer. Bottle blowing isn't what it used to be."

Kansas City Star abundantly confirms Mr. Zeigfeld: "When a woman starts to marry," says Prof. Florenz Zeigfeld, "the devil can't stop her." Our observation has been that the devil seldom even tries."

The New York Herald would go even further: "Dr. Anna Hoch-felder, a Democratic candidate for state senator, wants the marriage law amended so that any young woman seeking a license will have to show that she is skilled in some trade or occupation which she can take up in the event of her husband's death. How about plain and fancy housework in the event that her husband lives?"

News that interests taken from the Oregonian: "Harland Tucker is in Los Angeles playing leads with Maude Fulton in the play 'The Hummingbird,' which Miss Fulton wrote. In September Miss Fulton goes to New York to appear in a series of plays she has written. Mr. Tucker has signed a contract with Morocco for next season. Mrs. Harland Tucker (Marie Wolcamp) is appearing in the company with her husband."

The Kansas City Star epitomizes the situation: "Europe is agreed on two things, that Germany is going to smash and that America must set her hair up. On the latter point Europe never has had any doubt, the only differences of opinion being on whether Germany would smash or not. With this settled Europe really doesn't seem to have any controversy of importance left."

From the Brooklyn Eagle, and somewhat ambiguous in its conclusion: "The fat man who walked from Danville, Ill., to Los Angeles, crossing the Mohave desert without water, succeeded in losing eighty-one pounds. His condition is critical, but he may survive. We hope so. He's a fine object lesson."

The Imperial Valley is 21 years old. This is not to speak geologically, of course, but historically, or perhaps one should say cantalogically. The valley is just as excited and pleased and running to celebrate as Plymouth Rock was a couple of years ago. Perhaps more so, for Plymouth Rock is getting old enough by now to be rather bored by speeches and pageants.—Marysville Appeal.

The net returns to Shasta county from bootleg fines during the past year were more than $8000. The net returns in Tehama county were $2380. And yet we have the occasional citizen who sets up an awful howl about the expense of prosecuting bootleggers every time the district attorney puts in a bill for expense in running down this class of law violators.—Red Bluff News.

A schedule of salaries has just been announced for the faculty members of State Teachers' Colleges in California, the pay ranging from $1500 per year for the lowest paid assistant, to $4350 for the highest paid professor. It is said that the lowest rates paid in this State are 60 per cent higher than those paid in Eastern States.—Palo Alto Times.

Reading of the strike of harem guards and attendants in Constantinople carries a lot of comfort with it. There's one kind of strike we don't have in America.—Stockton Record.

about YOUR HEALTH

What Ought to Be Done in An Osteo-Myelitis Case
By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

"In the human body are 208 bones. These differ materially in shape and size, but in general they possess the same qualities, and are subject to the same diseases.

Bone tissue consists largely of mineral matter, chief of which is lime. The phosphate of lime leads in quantity, although a good deal of carbonate of lime is present. About one-third of the bone substance is organic material, mostly fat.

Covering each bone is a firm, fibrous material called the periosteum. This clings to the bone and is stripped off with difficulty.

Where two or more bones are brought together to form a joint, there is a special arrangement of points where the bones rub on each other. These are called the articular surfaces.

Bones are richly provided with blood vessels and nerves. The long bones have great spaces in the middle filled with spongy marrow. Even though a dried bone we find in a field is hard and brittle, a live bone is very different. It is a living, bleeding, sensitive tissue, subject to inflammation, pus formation, destruction and new growth.

When the bone is inflamed, the trouble begins in the outside, the part which is called periostitis—inflammation of the covering of the bone, the periosteum.

When the long bones—the bones having marrow—are inflamed and diseased the trouble is called "osteomyelitis," meaning inflammation of the bone and marrow.

Whether the inflammation begins in the periosteum or in the marrow or substance of the bone, it is but a short time when all the structures are involved. For this reason, inflammation of these bones is referred to generally as osteomyelitis.

This disease is due almost without exception to infection. The poison or septic substance may be introduced from outside the body. For instance, there may be an injury of such severity as to crush the soft tissues and injure the bone. Sometimes osteomyelitis follows a compound fracture. This is a form of fracture in which the bone is broken and the splintered ends perforate the soft tissues and skin. The conditions are just right to pick up dirt and germs. Osteomyelitis follows.

Germs are like people—they have preferences. Let the germs of disease attack a certain tissue somewhere in the body and there seems to be developed an appetite for this particular food. For instance, if the mastoid bone becomes diseased and germs are multiplying here they may be carried to distant parts of the body and attack other bones. Osteomyelitis, the bone infection may travel from bone to bone.

The signs are those always met in septic infection. Chill, high fever, bounding pulse, coated tongue, foul breath, prostration, and if the case progresses unfavorably, delirium, are the symptoms.

The tissues over the affected bone are tender. Redness, swelling, and heat of the part are noted. If the case goes on there will be pus formation.

These cases require prompt and skillful treatment. Do not trust to medicine alone. Drainage is important. There must be free drainage. Have your physician and surgeon take charge of the case and exercise their judgment. Osteomyelitis is not curable by self-treatment with or given palliative treatment.

Blackbirds' Curious Nesting Place.
After building five nests in a line on the head of a drag rake in a farm building at Devizes, a pair of blackbirds have just reared a brood of four in the fifth nest, the only one actually used. The number of half finished nests may be accounted for by the position of the head of the rake. Leaning against the wall with the teeth sloping downward, the nesting material kept slipping off, until, after four failures, the birds at length succeeded in getting the last nest to hold together. A somewhat similar incident was reported some time ago from Cambridgeshire, but in that case the nests were placed between the rungs of a ladder which hung horizontally against a wall.—From the Field.

C. OF C. RENEWS FUND CAMPAIGN

VOLUNTEERS SCOUR CITY FOR PLEDGES

$12,000 Remains to Be Secured Ere Fund Reaches $100,000; Forty Per Cent Prospects Yet to Be Seen

After three days' rest, during which time the forces were entirely reorganized, the army of workers engaged in the Chamber of Commerce campaign set forth on their second advance this morning. More than 400 responded to the call and will put in the next two or three days' finishing up the work of solicitation.

Approximately $12,000 still is to be received before the $100,000 mark is reached and about 40 per cent of the total prospects are yet to be seen. By noon time today these figures were materially reduced and it is the hope of those in charge that one more day will serve to conclude the drive and assure the Chamber of Commerce an income in keeping with the size of the city.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.
 Among those yet to be seen are many San Francisco houses with branches in Oakland. A special committee will visit San Francisco tomorrow and will ask of the San Francisco firms subscriptions in keeping with the volume of their Oakland business. It is the feeling of the executive committee that these companies are as much interested in the future of Oakland as are the men with their entire investment here and that they should give proportionately. In the past practically none of the Chamber of Commerce income has come from outside of the limits of the city.

The support given by Oakland business men has been extremely encouraging. From all parts of the city are increasing the amount of their subscriptions and when the campaign ends approximately one thousand members will be added to the list, bringing the total membership to around three thousand.

A $100,000 income and a membership of three thousand will place the Oakland Chamber of Commerce in a position to serve this rapidly growing metropolis effectively and will place Oakland on an equality with the other large cities of the state in the support given their commercial body.

CHAIRMAN PLEASED.
 Harrison S. Robinson, executive chairman, who was called to Portland during the course of the drive last week, is again on the ground this morning and is entirely satisfied with the showing that the workers are making.

"Considering the fact that this is the vacation period and as a result our working forces have been materially lessened and many prospects are out of town, the showing has been all that we could hope for," said Robinson. "We are going to get the $100,000, probably a little more than this, and we will have started the Chamber of Commerce on an upward climb which we believe will mean much for the future of the city."

"Now that the advance has begun, we do not intend that it ever shall be halted. While the campaign will be brought to a close within the next few days, the drive for a proper and adequate income will never cease. It will be carried on under the auspices of an efficient membership department and those whom we may fail to see at this time will be called upon for their proportionate part in the weeks to follow. We intend to make the Oakland Chamber of Commerce one of the best in the west and if this is to be done the income must be maintained."

Middy Blouse Introduced In Paris by Oakland Girl

The middy blouse was introduced into Paris by an Oakland girl.

When Miss Ruth Findlay of the Oakland recreation department arrived in the French capital eighteen months ago, the familiar article of feminine apparel was unheard of. Today the middy blouse is popularized in France through the activities of Miss Findlay and the Junior Red Cross, which she represented overseas.

"The French have learned two things at least," declared Miss Findlay, speaking before the women of the Soroptimist club, meeting in regular luncheon at Hotel Oakland yesterday. "They know the use of the middy blouse, and that, aside from Los Angeles, there is another city in the United States—Oakland, California—Au Far West."

"To be in France is satisfying," Miss Findlay declared. "One is never too old or too fat to be loved. There are no such atrocities as luncheon speeches. One attends luncheons to eat, and no business is permitted to interfere between the hours of noon and 2 p. m. Telegrams should be sent at least two days in advance to assure delivery. Until last year no telephone directories had been issued in Paris since the war."

REFRESHING TO RETURN.
 "To get back to the land of radio, flappers and Eskimo's was refreshing. To see how buildings have sprung up overnight in Oakland offers contrast."

Fifteen playgrounds in France, Belgium, Italy and the Netherlands to the activities of Miss Findlay during her overseas sojourn. In addition to their establishment she trained young men and women to supervise.

"After the Junior Red Cross has seen that the children of these countries had food and clothing, they turned attention to providing for them a recreation. A program of representative and a program to establish playgrounds in the devastated regions was undertaken. Through play and the spirit of the playgrounds a new life has been opened to them. They had no games but soccer football, tennis, and rolling the hoop. They had no game vocabulary. One of the difficulties was in finding words to translate our sports. Even Paris had no middy blouse."

BOBBED HAIR, LONG SKIRTS.
 Paris has neither bobbed hair nor short skirts, according to Miss Findlay.

"For instance, the French woman thinks too highly of her 'crowning glory' to destroy it," she commented. "One wonders what the American woman is going to do about the longer skirts."

"Exception was taken to the term 'Americanization' by the speaker. 'The foreigner has much to offer us,' she said. 'We receive as much as we give to the alien people. Oakland needs active optimists who

GIRLS TOGETHER THEIR TURNS AT OUTINGS

Generosity Made Hearts of Many Boys Glad; Now the Under-Nourished Sisters Will Be Given Camp Trip

The boys have had their turn. Now it is the girls'.

The Associated Charities has a long list of little maids whose checks are too pale and whose bodies are too thin, who need two weeks in the Oakland Municipal Camp in the high Sierras. Just as many will be sent as the generous hearts and purses of the men and women who remember the open spaces, swimming pools and trees provide for. The unit of girls will leave Saturday, July 29, and many an anxious heart is wondering if she will be chosen. Well, will she? Already a nest egg of $33.50 has been sent into the Oakland Tribune for the Associated Charities' Vacation Fund, which will be used to finance vacations for the little girls. If she be under 12 years old, $15.00 will provide her a full two weeks of good food, and supervised play in the mountain pleasure ground. The friends who have subscribed the first sums toward the girls' unit are:

R. S. M., $2.
 Mrs. L. H. Wade, $5.
 Mrs. L. W. Lowell, $5.
 A. friend, $1.50.
 H. Casey, $20.

Meg and Peg and Josie are the sort of little girls for which this fund has been started. They have a big brother who is earning $60 a month with which their mother is giving food, clothing and a house to the seven children and herself. Now the mother must go through life on a crutch, but she manages to keep the house neat and her small brood clean. She does the washing and ironing and cooking and never complains. The father is dead. He was a peddler, but one day something happened to his machine and he never came home. After a while, perhaps, the mother will be granted her widow's pension, but that time has not come. Now, do Meg, Peg and Josie get their vacation? And does the mother get a kindly boost over the harder places?

A check to the Associated Charities' Vacation Fund sent to the Oakland TRIBUNE will help such youngsters and such mothers as these.

'Co-ed,' 80, Still Attends Classes on U. of C. Campus

BERKELEY, July 18.—Past 80 years old and still a student at the University of California is Mrs. L. A. Patty of Berkeley, who for twenty-one years has been attending lectures on the campus.

Mrs. Patty is enrolled at the present time in the university summer session and attends classes with all the zest of a younger student. She has a code of "college manners" all her own. She says:

"When I arrive at a lecturer has begun to talk I stay out. No matter how 'dry' a lecture is I never leave until it's over. If I'm not enjoying it, I'm going to keep on going to college as long as I live. There may be no schools in the next world and I don't want to miss anything here. There are worse hobbies than education."

Judge Langdon Wins Race to Save Job

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Presiding Justice William H. Langdon, of Division 2, District Court of Appeal, is back in San Francisco, having arrived here yesterday 60 hours ahead of schedule. His arrival followed an exciting race against time, across Europe, the Atlantic ocean and the continent, there being a State law to the effect that no judge of a state court can be away for more than 60 days. Had Judge Langdon remained away longer than that time he would be automatically removed from office.

IRVIN S. COBB

The Unforgivable Sin.

A year or two before his death, Booker Washington made an address in a small town in Georgia. He looked like a bronze lion, and he spoke, as he always did, as one inspired. When he had finished, an old Confederate soldier, white haired and white moustached, pushed forward to the platform, his old face aglow with enthusiasm and approval of what the orator had said.

"Professor Washington," he declared, "I want to do now what I never thought I'd be doing—I want to clasp your hand and pledge my support for the great work you are doing. And, furthermore, I want to tell you this—I want to tell you that that was the best speech I ever heard in my life, and that you are the greatest man in this country today!"

"I'm afraid you do me too much honor," said Washington. "Wouldn't you regard Col. Roosevelt as the greatest man we have?"

"Huh!" exploded the Southerner. "I've had no use for him since that time when he invited you to eat a meal with him at the White House."

Uncle Wiggily Stories

HOWARD GARBER

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE WORM.

"UNCLE WIGGILY! Will you take a little walk with me?"

This is what the bunny rabbit heard one morning as he hopped down the front steps of his hollow stump bungalow. Turning to look, Uncle Wiggily saw Susie Little, the girl rabbit, hopping after him.

"Oh, Susie!" laughed Mr. Longears. "I'm so glad you aren't the Fuzzy Fox or the Woolzie Wolf!"

"I'm glad also!" laughed Susie. "I wouldn't want to be a Fox or a Wolf, 'cause then I couldn't walk with you!"

"No, indeed," said Uncle Wiggily. "I guess I couldn't walk very far with a Fox or a Wolf before they'd want to nibble my ears. But are you going anywhere special, Susie?"

"No," answered the little girl rabbit. "I just thought I'd go where you are going and if you have an adventure I could sort of help, you know?"

"Of course," agreed the bunny gentleman. "Come along, Susie!"

So Uncle Wiggily and Susie hopped over the fields and through the woods together.

Soon they reached a shady place in the woods, where green ferns grew in a "ring around the rose" near a bubbling spring of water. It was so lovely there that Uncle Wiggily and Susie sat down on a mossy log to rest.

All of a sudden, as Susie sat beside Uncle Wiggily, the little girl rabbit gave a cry of surprise and said:

"Look what's on my dress, Uncle Wiggily!"

"Why, it's a green crawling worm!" cried the bunny. "But don't be afraid, Susie. The poor little worm is very likely as frightened as you are. I'll flip him off with my paw! Don't be afraid of the worm!"

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Of course I'm not afraid!" laughed Susie, and she tickled the worm on his back until he wriggled into a shape like the letter U turned upside down.

"Oh, aren't you afraid, Susie?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Of course not!" laughed the girl rabbit again. "Why this is only a measuring worm, Uncle Wiggily, and it is said to be very good luck to have one crawl on you."

"A measuring worm?" exclaimed the bunny. "A worm to bring good luck? I don't believe I ever heard of such a thing!"

"Didn't you," asked Susie, as she watched the worm wiggle its way along on her skirt. "Well, that's because you're a man rabbit, I suppose. See how this worm wiggles along almost drawing himself together, as if he were seeing how many inches there are in the hem of my skirt. Do you see him doing that?"

Why, it's only a measuring worm, Uncle Wiggily.

"Yes, I see him," said the bunny.

"Well, that's why he's called a measuring worm," laughed Susie. "Of course he really isn't—only make believe. But some folks say when a measuring worm gets on you it's a sign you're going to have a new dress."

"Oh, is it?" asked Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose.

"Mind you, I'm not saying for sure, but maybe," went on Susie. "Is your mother going to get you a new dress?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"I don't believe so," said Susie, sadly. "She hasn't much money. But if you wanted to get me a new red dress, Uncle Wiggily, I guess it would be all right. And then it would be true about the measuring worm, wouldn't it, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Susie, hopefully.

"Yes, I guess it would!" chuckled Mr. Longears. "And, as I have nothing else to do, Susie, I'll take you to the store and get you a new red dress!"

"Oh, goodie! goodie!" cried Susie, clapping her paws. "Here, little measuring worm," she went on, "you stay on the soft, green mossy log until I come back, and gently she flicked the worm off her dress to the log."

Uncle Wiggily and Susie reached the seven and eight cent store, where Mr. Longears bought a new red dress for the little rabbit girl. They carried it home with them, through the woods, and, once again reaching the green mossy log, they sat down to rest.

"I'm going to open the bundle and look once more at my pretty red dress," said Susie. She was looking at it, and softly patting it when, all of a sudden, the Woolzie Wolf thrust his head out from behind the bushes and growled:

"Lean a little closer, Uncle Wiggily, so I may nibble your ears easier. Lean a little closer."

"Oh, no," cried the bunny. "Oh, yes!" howled the Wolf. He was just going to reach out and nip Uncle Wiggily's ears when, all of a sudden, the green measuring worm crawled off the log to the Wolf's shaggy leg and thence to his nose. Across the Wolf's nose the worm crawled, and, all of a sudden the Wolf sneezed and cried:

"Oh, how tickled I am! How very much tickled! Oh, what a funny feeling! I've got to run through the bushes and scratch my ticklish nose!" And away he ran, not hurting Uncle Wiggily or Susie in the least.

"Well, you see the worm did bring us good luck," laughed Susie, as she picked the crawling creature up from the ground, where he had fallen from the Wolf's nose, and put the worm on the soft log again.

"Yes, very good luck!" chuckled Mr. Longears. Then he went home with Susie and her new dress.

"Can any man in this audience truthfully say that education has hurt his business?" challenged the educator. "I can," answered a small man in the rear row. "And might I ask what your business is?" asked the educator. "Certainly," answered the other. "I used to make a good living peddling the book, 'What Every Young Girl Should Know'; but there's no demand for it any more."

We don't believe anybody wuz ever too good to be clever, even if o' them do act like it. We remember when a woman wuz called 'be known as th' wife o' a scholar'.

My Marriage Problems

Chloe Garrison's New Phase Of Revelations of a Wife

The Advice Robert Savarin Gave Mrs. Rundle.

Robert Savarin adjusted his eyes and slowly scrutinized the faces of Mrs. Rundle and her friends.

Most of them were pretentious things, figure groups and single portraits, all framed in a style which I guessed, may know, had meant the sacrifice of necessary food and comforts for the women who had painted them. But among them were three or four unpretentious framed small canvases which appealed to my love of color as the big canvases did not.

A branch of autumn leaves, with the sunlight on them, a corner of a garden showing flame-colored poppies bending to the breeze, another clump of stately foxgloves—I turned to Mrs. Rundle and reluctantly, to express the admiration for the small canvases which was her due, when I heard her whisper, tensely to Lillian:

"Those little things there are just postcards to throw to the people without a much money who come here. Lots of 'em like a splash of color, and so often those sell where the big and good pictures don't get a bid."

ROBERT SAVARIN'S VERDICT.

She put her hand to her mouth to still the trouble which had come to her lips as she watched Robert Savarin studying each picture closely, conscientiously. I suddenly had the sensation of being in a courtroom, waiting for the life or death verdict of a jury.

The artist finished his task, having apparently given to the tiniest canvas the same consideration he gave to the larger canvases. Then he turned to Mrs. Rundle, and I saw that his grave face was unusually animated.

"You have three wonderfully good things here, Mrs. Rundle," he said with the sureness of a man who is master of his craft, and who acknowledged authority upon his subject. "But, with a little comprehending smile, I am afraid you won't thank me for telling you what they are."

She could not show her pallor, her make-up was too well put on, but I knew from her eyes that the blood had left her face and was racing to her heart in the suspense that was hers.

"What—what—do you mean?" she asked, although I think she knew as well as Lillian and I did, what his meaning was. But it is bewildering to change one's whole life plan in a second.

"You have no future in figures—portraits—anything where you have to portray the human form," the artist said. "These pictures," he indicated the ambitious canvases, "may be sold at a good price some day, but it will be simply because of the reputation you will gain in doing bits like these—if you can stick your ambition to be a portrait painter. You have a rare gift for color, and in the effect of life—by Jove! you can see those poppies awaying!"

STUBBORN LONGING.

He had singled out for approbation the autumn leaves, the poppies, the foxgloves, the deep-seated flower studies Mrs. Rundle had termed "pot-bollers." I watched the woman's face, and I felt relieved to see that after her first disappointment she was beginning to take courage from Robert Savarin's admiration of the small canvases.

"You think they ought to sell?" she asked with a timidity which I surmised was an entirely new emotion to her.

"If the people here have any discrimination," his eyes swept the room and came back to her. "Do you mind," he asked, remembering her wrathful denunciation of Mrs. Rundle for asking him to bid upon the pictures, "if I start the bidding for your friend by bidding?" Of course I will sell when I reach what I consider it's worth, and you need have no fear, Mrs. Rundle. If no one else bids over me, I shall be proud to have one of these pictures in my own collection."

"Better see the arranger, Eleanor," Lillian interposed quickly, "and ask to have these put up soon, for I have an engagement to meet friends at Fairville and cannot stay long."

Mrs. Rundle hurried away, and Lillian turned a radiant face to Robert Savarin. "You dear!" she said softly. "That means life to her."

"No, it only means an opportunity for her to make more of a fool of herself than she is now," he returned. "But you wish it, and that is sufficient. But these things are surprisingly good, just as those portraits are atrocious. But you'll see that she'll go on painting portraits till the end of her days." I wondered if he could possibly be right in his dictum. It did not seem possible that any woman would throw away such advice. But in Mrs. Rundle's glance, when she came back from her conference with Miss Corwin, there was a look of stubborn longing at her big canvases which made me wonder if Robert Savarin had not read her right. And then Miss Corwin came quickly toward us, followed by an assistant and directed the taking from the wall of the canvases with the flame-colored poppies.

The Daily Dozen

The guy—
Who charged me thirty bones—
For his system of reducing—Probably didn't know—
That thirty hard-earned iron men—
Was calling up the last reserve—
In my financial army.
But I was fat and full of gout—
And had assumed such woeful curves—
That, standing in a bathing suit—
On the very hottest day—
My feet were never sunburnt—
I was a human awning.
And this guy said—
If I would do what he would say—
That I would last a hundred years—
And on the end—he put a verse—
That I had heard in school—
It read—
"Don't be a weaking—
"Be not like dumb, driven cattle"—
And so I sent my note to him—
Goodbye and pleasant dreams.
So here at last is his big plan—
All full of pictures—
Of strong men—
Whose bulging muscles rip their coats—
He says—they got that way—
By following his system.
So here's a go—
It says right here—
Bend down and touch your toes—
Don't bend your knees—
And do this fifty times—
Great, grunting Caesar—
I can't get one-half way down—
And that's enough of that—Tarnation foolishness.
"This next one sure will make your back—Strong as an ox"—
Let's see—You take one foot—
And place it up around your neck—
Grunt—grunt—puff—puff—
Now there you are—
You ossified old badger—
Great Caesar's aunt—I can't let go—
I've got to get that foot back—
I can't go round the town like this—
I'd hate to live a hundred years—
Like a darned human puzzle—
Help!—help!—I'm all mixed up—
Dad bust the bloomin' guy who said—
That this would make a man of me.
I'm off of this tarnation bunk—
And I am sore—you bet I'm sore—
And if I ever meet the guy—
Who said I'd live a hundred years—
I'll beat he don't live fifty.

Clarice Patterns

A most interesting possibility for a Summer dress affects the new square neckline which is gradually being brought forward by New York and Paris designers and which, it is whispered, will soon be as popular as the much beloved bateau neckline.

This style would look very becoming if made in cotton foulard at 50c a yard with batiste at 50c a yard for contrasting material and would then cost you approximately $2.25 plus about six hours of your time. But you could also make this of figured voile with organdie for the collar and vest, belt and cuffs; and a still more dressy frock could be made of printed georgette trimmed with plain georgette.

The pattern No. 1433 cuts in sizes 16 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 yards of 36-inch material with 1½ yards of 36-inch contrasting material. Price 15c, stamps or coin.

Listen, World!

I DOUBT if even the witch burning days saw such intolerance as roams our land at present. Intolerance doesn't mean differing from the other chap. Every human has a right to his own viewpoint, be it narrow or broad. Nor does it consist in discussing that viewpoint, however hotly. But it DOES mean branding the other fellow as a criminal simply because he doesn't agree with you. That sort of an attitude has shackled the world since Eve first munches the apple, and is the sort of attitude which the real patriots and reformers are fighting today.

Ask any bigot where he got his charter and he will proudly point to God and has to stand for an awful lot! But bigot has in truth no such divine origin. Your bigot is, at heart, a savage on the rampage. He is out for good and evil. Civilization usually denies him such simple pleasures so he works off his frenzy in mutilating spirits and scalping souls—thereafter dragging God in as an alibi.

There are, however, times when civilization lets down the bars and savagery is sanctioned! War is such a time. Wars are not intelligent affairs. They arise from emotional appetites—late envy, greed, fear, and they are fought under emotional strain. In such an atmosphere people who use their feelings rather than their intelligence have a wonderful opportunity to make their mark. Fanaticism flourishes, cruelty is glorified, destructive criticism and savage suspicion assume the form of civic virtues.

After the war is over these

Certain Carping Critics complain that I am "undermining the morals of the youth of today." I shall accordingly present a typical "Moral" and let you judge for yourself whether I undermine it or not.

"Dear Jerry: This is the first time I have written to you. I am a daily reader of your column, and I want your advice. I am seventeen, Jerry, and I go with a boy of twenty-two. My mother doesn't allow me to have any friends so I have them when she doesn't know anything about it. My girl friend and I and the two boys sneak out quite a bit. Now Jerry, you may scold, but we have had some pleasure. I like the boy I go with awfully well, but Jerry, when we go out he goes too far and I let him. Oh, how do I, Jerry? I smoke and everything when I am out with him, but when I am home no one would ever think I do such things. I come home at 1 and 2 o'clock and my mother has so much faith in me that she lets me go with my girl friend thinking I would never make anyone. Is it because I can't have a fellow come to the house that I let him? I suppose so. I have everything when I am out with him, but when I am home no one would ever think I do such things. KELLY AND STRAND ARE TIED FOR P. C. L. BATTING HONORS

JAKE MAY OF VERNON IS GIVING BUZ ARLETT A HOT FIGHT FOR WINNING THE MOST GAMES

SALT LAKE PLAYER HAS HIT SAFELY IN THIRTY-ONE GAMES

Claude Cooper Continues to Display Class in Hitting and Fielding for Oaks.

By EDDIE MURPHY

Paul Strand may not be any too valuable to the Salt Lake Bees as a first sacker, but he certainly is proving his value with the war club. The tall young Bee continued last week to maul the shoots of Pacific Coast League pitchers and he is now tied with Joe Kelly of the San Francisco Seals for the batting lead. Strand is nearing the 400 mark, and is now at .392, a gain of seven points over last week. Joe Kelly also climbed in his hitting and improved his mark of .385. The work of Strand, however, is more sensational than that of Joe Kelly, as the tall Bee has connected for a base hit in every one of his last thirty-one games and if he can hit safely in the next nineteen games he will equal the Coast League record for consecutive game hitting, which Jack Ness, former Oak, established some time ago. The Bees play at home for the next couple of weeks and there is a good chance for Paul to turn the trick.

However, Strand did not do all his consecutive hitting on the Salt Lake diamond for more than half of those thirty-one games were played on the road. In the thirty-one games, Strand has hit at .455, 131 times and connected for sixty hits giving him an average of .455 for the time since he started his drive.

The left-handed batter of the Oaks is doing the big work with the war club. George (Frenchy) La Fayette and Claude Cooper in spite of the locals losing five out of seven games at Sacramento and a good time with the stick, and both boosted their average. La Fayette is the leading hitter for the locals with a mark of .322, six points better than last week, while Cooper, who is next with a gain of ten points. Denny Wille fell down a few points, but is still in the select class along with Don Martin Brown. The Oaks now have four regulars

BRITAIN FORCED TO WITHDRAW FROM DAVIS CUP EVENT

JACK REEVES WILL BE IN THE BEST OF CONDITION WHEN HE BOXES CLIFF KRAMER TOMORROW

TWO MAIN EVENTS ON TOMORROW'S CARD AT THE AUDITORIUM

Little Four Rounders Are All Set for the Show; Duffy, Farren Should Step Lively.

By BOB SHAND.

The Jack Reeves who will box Cliff Kramer at the auditorium tomorrow night will be a different athlete from the slow-moving youth who was held to a draw recently by Frankie Denny. Reeves accepted the Denny match on short notice and got in only about three days' training. The result was he was slower than two ice wagons and missed his punches by yards. Reeves felt badly over this showing, as usually he is a very conscientious trainer and he started work in the gymnasium at once. He has been on the road every morning for the past couple of weeks and those who have seen him boxing in the gym declare he is in shape to set a lively pace with Mr. Kramer. Jack can't afford to lose many four-round decisions as he is a card in the East and defeats will hurt him in New York and Philadelphia, where he did a lot of fighting last summer.

Reeves did not accept the Kramer bout until he knew he was in condition. He very candidly admitted he put up a terrible fight with Denny and he told Simpson he would never again accept a match until he was in condition to do himself justice.

When Kramer was reinstated on this side of the bay the first match Simpson had in mind for him was a contest with Reeves, but some of the camp hangers-on advised Cliff to pick on something softer. He hurt his hand in training and was unable to box anyone. After seeing Reeves against Denny, Cliff came to the conclusion that he could "take" the San Francisco heavyweight. If Kramer wins decisively tomorrow he will garner a lot of fame in the city where Reeves is well and favorably known.

Kramer is training in a private gymnasium in Fruitvale and is said to be in wonderful condition. Burns, the veteran lightweight, has been giving Cliff some pointers and Burns will probably act as his chief second tomorrow night.

Jimmy Duffy Favored To Win From Farren.

Most of the customers figure Jimmy Duffy will beat Frankie Farren in the other main event. They are doping the fight on the showing Farren made against Young. Farren, in that contest, looked like a prizefighter, but it must be remembered that Farren was only in there to stick the four rounds and his clinging tactics kept Farren from doing any real fighting. At that, Duffy always had it on Frankie and James is not afraid of the outcome tomorrow evening.

This Walter Caldwell person who meets Ray Pelkey is liable to upset both the beans and Pelkey. Walter is a terrific hitter and has tackled some of the toughest middleweights in the game. He has seen Pelkey box on several occasions and has advised Manager Bert McCloud to have the ambulance outside ready. Caldwell has been in training for several weeks and will be in shape to step fast.

George Spencer and Billy Wallace, two old favorites, are back on the card. Spencer took a terrific beating at the eastern game and good. Wallace is a local boy who went to Salt Lake to make a reputation. Johnny Marvin, who made a nice fight with Frankie Denny last week, has a date with Kelly Morrison tomorrow. Eddie Kelly and Angelo Silva will furnish the curtain-raiser.

Joe Kitzel, the Alameda socker, who has developed quite a kick, will try his punch on Roy Sutherland.

Suhr Advances in Washington Tennis

SEATTLE, July 18.—Favorites entered in the Washington state tennis tournament yesterday came through the first round with reputations untarnished until just before the close of the matches, when Lench Villagras, the fourth ranking player in the Seattle club, dropped this match with Ralph Miller, the first real upset of the 1922 state meet.

The other favorites, Marshall Albert, H. V. D. Jones, Leon de la Torre, Albert Mansel-Smith, Herbert Suhr, and Marlon, Don Waller, Crawford, Anderson, Dick Vanderlas, and Lutz, and R. Burr advanced easily to the second round. Suhr, the California junior champion, advanced by default and was not called upon to show his stuff.

DURANT MOTORS WIN

The Durant Motors fast in the final race of the battle between the two teams. The Durant boys had their driving loss. They knocked two out of the box in all they got twenty hits. Durant's heavy stick work with four clubs while Durant got a triple and a double. Durant's heavy stick work with four clubs while Durant got a triple and a double. LOS GATOS

Los Gatos, July 18.—The Los Gatos baseball team won the first game of the season, defeating the San Jose team by a score of 10 to 0. The game was played at the Los Gatos stadium and was a very exciting contest.

Old Sam Langford Still Knows Stuff

TULSA, Okla., July 18.—Sam Langford, negro heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Bert at the end of the fifth round of his scheduled 12-round bout. The negro failed to come from his corner, claiming a broken hand.

Full Swing; Proper Stance

By ALEC HERD.

Written for the United Press.

CHAPTER I.

Editor's Note:—The sixth number of the author's series of instructions on playing golf, deals with reflections on the full swing and the proper stance.

All beginners at golf are ambitious, and it has often occurred to me that their ambition is the cause of their undoing. It is so frequently centered on one stroke—the full swing. When the swing is thoroughly mastered a man is on the way to the blissful realms of "plus something." The great mistake of most beginners is in wanting to tackle the full swing at the start. Many seem to think that the driver is the only club in the bag that counts.

The full swing is one of the hardest things in golf. I would like to advise all beginners to take great pains not to do the movement. Many are inclined to take the club too far over the left shoulder, with the result that the clubhead dips too much from the horizontal. Under do the length in the downswing, and the club is too far over the left shoulder, with the result that the clubhead dips too much from the horizontal. Under do the length in the downswing, and the club is too far over the left shoulder, with the result that the clubhead dips too much from the horizontal.

Novices generally regard the full swing as a movement quite different from the rest of the game. At that, it is a quarter swing. They think there is no special connection between the four swings. As a matter of fact, the movements are fundamentally the same except that they are curtailed or lengthened according to the shot required.

The stance is very important. It is also difficult to teach. In simple words, the beginner should look as though he were about to connect squarely with the ball; that is, he should stand as squarely as possible, his left shoulder pointing a little to the left.

There are three different stances—the open, the square, and the closed—and they are all a matter of convenience. I would advise the beginner to adopt that which is most natural to him. The open stance is the one in which the right foot is placed six inches further forward than the left. The square stance is the one in which the feet are placed together—about eighteen inches apart—in the closed stance; and for the square stance the feet are absolutely square to the direction for which you are aiming and the toes of both feet are on the same line.

An important thing for the beginner to remember is to make up his mind quickly which stance suits him best and to stick to it. It is simply asking for trouble to waver. Every stage of the golf stroke must be a complete movement, with hands, eyes, and body working in absolute unison.

Wills Is Matched With Tut Jackson

NEW YORK, July 18.—Tut Jackson, of Washington Court House, Ohio, and Harry Wills, challenger for Jack Dempsey's heavyweight title, both negroes, have been matched for a 15-round contest at the Madison Square Garden, New York, announced last night after Wills signed a contract with the state athletic commission. Jackson signed an agreement for the match several days ago.

FLORES OUTPOINTED

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 18.—Johnny Slaughter, Waterbury, Conn., outpointed Eddie Flores, the Philippine lightweight champion in a 12-round contest last night. In the opinion of a majority of newspapermen present.

It's All in the DAY'S WORK

Man crazy 'bout fishing makes date with friends to pick 'em up five bells Sabbath morn and makes good resolution to go home and go to bed early Saturday.

Young Satans meet Mr. Man and shoots all good resolutions dead by suggesting little game of draw, which is sure to eventually end in lotta stud.

Come three or four bells young man suggest go home grab some sleep. Grogg against that strong, ain't stick around another hour, it ain't worth while going to bed NOW.

Fisherman falls, loses more jack, meets friends on time, drives to Rodeo wharf, finds big packing case with nice springy top, sits down, lies down, sleeps through two tides.

Alameda Tennis Team Defeated In Garden City

San Jose Net Players Take Honors; Singles Go to Encinal Boys.

The Island City Tennis club of Alameda journeyed to San Jose last Sunday, where a social tournament was held with San Jose at their home on the grounds of the Hotel Vendome, San Jose taking the event 14 matches to 10. In singles the Island City had the edge, winning 8 of the 14 matches, but in the hard-fought doubles the doubles the Garden City combination proved the best.

Clovey La Croix played a brilliant game against Willard, not giving his opponent an opportunity to get started.

Another hotly contested match was that of Keaton and Payne, and Rose and Bailey. In the doubles the Garden City team, consisting of Hanchett-Payne and Overberg-Lishman; Coolidge-Schultz vs. Harper-Fergus, and Merrill-Lagman and Lathrop-Harmon.

The feature of the match was that between Dykeman-Sweitzer and Terstege-Pfundstein, which resulted in the latter's defeat after three hard-fought deuce sets, in which the advantage game alternated. The results:

SURPLUS ON HAND
TOLD BY BOARD OF EDUCATION

Oakland Body Reports Balance of $9184 for Year; President Continues.

The Oakland Board of Education completed the fiscal year with a balance on hand of $9184, according to the report of John P. Edgemond, secretary of the board. The report was read yesterday at the regular meeting of the board.

According to Edgemond, this is the first time in a number of years that at the close of the fiscal school year there has been a surplus. The report shows that the total expenditure of the year was $3,619,827. Of that amount $1,507,877 was spent for high school purposes. It also states that $123,397 was spent in kindergarten work and $1,985,952 for elementary schools.

The board last night voted to put off the election of a president for the ensuing year. No date is now set for the election. The office is now held by Harry F. Doyle and he will continue to act in that position until a new president is elected.

A resolution was introduced by Director Fred Campbell in which the board of education is pledged to give preference to ex-service men who are seeking employment whenever possible. The resolution was adopted.

TO TRAIN VETERANS
A contract between the United States Veterans' Bureau for the instruction of disabled soldiers in the printing shop was approved by the board. The soldiers will be trained at the Vocational High School and the board will be paid $35 a month for each soldier.

The report of Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of schools, on the annual convention of the National Education Association, was read and filed. He was congratulated by the board for securing the 1923 convention for this city. A special committee will be appointed to entertain the visiting delegates.

LIST OF TEACHERS
The board upon the recommendation of Superintendent Hunter approved the list of teachers for the University High School. The list follows in full:

Frank H. Boren, principal Clinton C. Conrad, vice principal; Harold H. Cozons, vice principal; Junior High: Saldea M. Sturtevant, vice principal and dean of girls; Gertrude E. Allen, supervisor of mathematics; Marion Avery, physical education; Edna W. Bailey, supervisor of science; Edna E. Beck, supervisor of modern languages; Emma J. FIVE ARTISTS TO PROVIDE TRIBUNE
RADIO PROGRAMNotable Music Features Will Be Broadcasted Tonight From 7:30 to 8:15.

Radio fans who listen in tonight from 7:30 o'clock to 8:15, on KZM, the broadcasting station of The TRIBUNE, will be treated to a splendid musical program, featuring five artists well known throughout the bay region for their ability. Five persons will participate: Charles S. Offenberg, pianist and composer; Mrs. Mabel Florence Dunning, popular dramatic soprano; Miss Ethel Borrmann, grand opera soprano, and Stanley and Murphy, two well-known vaudeville entertainers.

Tonight's program has been so arranged that every minute of the 45-minute schedule, with the exception of the periods used for government instructions, will be occupied, and there will be no delays or halts.

Charles S. Offenberg, who composed the numbers that Miss Borrmann and Stanley and Murphy will sing, is a writer of popular songs. He has started on the road to success with his compositions, both instrumental as well as vocal, which number more than half a hundred.

Some of his successes are "Close to My Heart," "Mammy Blues" and "How Can I Make You Care?" He is now working on the score of a musical comedy which promises to make a big hit.

Professor Offenberg received his musical education at the State Conservatory in Berlin. At present he is connected with the Jazz Studio, 1500 San Pablo avenue. Tonight he will not accompany the vocalists who will broadcast the productions, but will also accompany Mrs. Dunning, who will broadcast a program of her own selection.

Mrs. Dunning was a pupil of Grace LePage and has engaged in several recitals before various clubs and organizations about the bay, where she is popular. Miss Borrmann has delighted many audiences from coast to coast, and has won the ranks of grand opera.

Stanley and Murphy are well-known vaudeville stars.

200 CARS OF WHEAT BURN.
LEGRAND, July 18.—A hob box on a separator started a grain fire on the Phenagary ranch, operated by S. Pate and son, causing the loss of 200 cars of wheat. Only the arrival of many volunteers saved the nearby fields. The loss is covered by insurance.

Dominic Boquet, another rancher, riding with him, was painfully injured. None of the passengers was hurt. Pustka has a brother, Frank Pustka, living at 1621 Haight street, San Francisco.

DE VALLE FARM FOR CHILDREN IS TO BE OPENEDSunshine Institution Near Livermore-Gives Ailing
Boys and Girls Aid.

The formal opening and inspection of el Valle Farm for Children near Livermore is announced for Sunday, July 30, from 2 to 5 p. m. The men and women who have made possible this sunshine institution which affords boys and girls, suffering from malnutrition and weakened physical conditions, which later might develop into tuberculosis, an opportunity to recuperate, have been especially bidden to attend the reception by Wm. J. Hamilton, chairman of the board of supervisors of Alameda county; Harrison S. Robinson, chairman of the Alameda County Public Health Board, chairman of the Alameda County Tuberculosis Association; and Joseph H. Hing, chairman of the Alameda County Institutions commission.

Arroyo Sanitarium, the tuberculosis hospital maintained by Alameda county in the neighborhood of the Del Valle Farm, will also be opened for inspection of the guests on the same afternoon.

Purchase of the Livermore acreage, which comprise the Del Valle Farm, was consummated this summer through the board of supervisors. The 1921 sale of Christmas Seals provided the necessary funds.

Equipment was acquired through private subscriptions made in answer to a mail campaign conducted by the Tuberculosis Association.

The first unit of children carefully selected by health authorities was sent to the farm a fortnight ago. Medical supervision is given the inmates of the farm by the staff at Arroyo sanitarium.

LESSON NO. 109.

The Effects of Frequency.

(Copyright by Edward M. Davis)

(All Rights Reserved by United

Feature Syndicate. Reproduction Prohibited)

Frequency is a term applied to alternating current circuits, referring to the changes in direction of the current. For example, a lightning circuit which applies

60 cycle current to a house is said to have a frequency of 60 cycles, while most of the spark signals heard on the receiving set have a frequency of 500 cycles, if they are from commercial stations.

The frequency of the current which is to pass through the windings of a transformer or other electrical device having an iron core is an important consideration in designing such equipment. An increase in the frequency usually means a decrease in the dimensions of the iron core used. It takes a definite time to set up a given magnetic field around a coil of wire and in an iron core and if the current is made to reverse its direction more often it is necessary to reduce the amount of iron in the core to permit building up the field to the same strength.

The lowest frequency employed for commercial lighting circuits is 25 cycles, current means 50 alternations of current per second. This frequency is somewhat below the range of the usual voice or audio frequencies. When we get up into the range of radio frequencies the current reverses extremely rapidly so that most of the apparatus of the sort mentioned above functions without any iron core at all, having a so-called "air-core." Examples of air-core transformers are various couplers and receiving transformers, radio-frequency amplifying transformers, and oscillation transformers of various types for transmission purposes.

It is a peculiarity of radio-frequency currents that they "travel chiefly on the surface of the conductor and do not penetrate deeply into it. This is the reason why tubing or strips of large area are employed in powerful transmitting stations for those parts of the circuit which carry high frequency currents. This also accounts for the fact that a person coming in contact with the antenna lead of a transmitting plant of moderate power is not always severely burned.

Many of the vaudeville acts are performed with high frequency currents jumping from the fingertips of the performers without injury.

A transformer designed to operate on, say, 500 cycles will probably burn out if subjected to the excessive current which would be drawn from a 25-cycle source unless a large core suitable for the
